

Summer Stipend Awards for 1999

Exploratory Scholarship and Artistic Projects:

Marthe Chandler to conduct research and write on "Comparative Philosophy: Meno and Mencius."

Scholarly Work or Artistic Projects:

Joe Heithaus to prepare a manuscript for a book of poetry, People Under Water.

Darrell LaLone to complete his portion of a textbook on Long-Term Social Change.

William Little to complete a manuscript for a book, The Waste Fix: Literature and the Sacred in American Consumer Culture.

Course Development and Renewal Projects:

Susan Balter-Reitz to develop a communication department senior seminar course, "Communication: Language and Power."

Bridget Gourley to work on the physical chemistry sequence, Physical Chemistry I and II.

Chet Fornari to develop a course, "Molecular Biology."

Jeff McCall to work on the course, "Broadcast Journalism."

Computer Enhanced Course Renewal Projects:

David Herrold to develop a ceramics resource web site to support the ceramics program in the art department.