

Summer Stipend Awards for 2000

Exploratory Projects:

Julia Bruggemann - "Through the Prism of Prostitution: State and Society in Hamburg, 1800- 1914"

*Linda Elman - "The Life and Literature of Lorca"

David Gellman - "Liberty's Legacy: The Jay Family and the Problem of American Freedom"

David Guinee - "Exploring Statius' Thebaid"

*Barbara Whitehead - "History Colloquium"

*Lili Wright - "Learning to Float"

Scholarly Projects:

*Kelley Hall - "Reworking Two Manuscripts Into Journal Submissions"

Joe Heithaus - "Finding Garnie Braxton: James Wright's 'Many Waters'"

Jeff Kenney - "Religious Rhetoric, Radicalism and Reform in Modern Egypt"

Kerry Pannell - "Advertising and Self-Regulation in the Progressive Era: The Formation of the Better Business Bureaus in the Early 1900's"

Computer Enhanced Projects:

Terri Bonebright - "Integration of the Statistical Package for Social Sciences (SPSS) into Research Methods"

Cynthia O'Dell - "New Digital Video Instruction in Video Arts Program"

Course Development Projects:

*Yung-chen Chiang - Sophomore Seminar - "History 290 Misunderstanding China"

Vic DeCarlo, Howard Brooks & Andrew Smith - "Revitalizing the Introductory Physics course Using the 'Six Ideas' Model"

*Glen Kuecker - Sophomore Seminar - "Globalization: Historical Contexts to Contemporary Crisis"

Nafhat Nasr - "Improving a Good Course: Enhancing the Scope of Global Issues"

Craig Pare - "Music Education Lab & Survey of Wind Literature"

Caroline Perkins - "Introduction to Music Education, Foundations of Music Education, and Secondary General Music: Methods, Materials, and Curricula"

Amir Rafat - "International Law"

*Awarded both FYS and Summer Stipend Awards and chose the First Year Seminar Summer Stipend Award.

Awarded through Faculty Development supplement.