

Fisher Time-out Awards for 2002-2003

Srimati Basu* - Journal article and conference paper from research on Family Courts.

Anne Fernald* - Course development: English 394: Literature and History: The Modern World, 1900-1950.

David N. Gellman - Revisions for manuscript, "Inescapable Discourse: Slavery and Abolition in Early National New York."

Anne Harris - Publication project seeking to reposition medieval stained glass windows as interactive images in performative relationships with liturgical drama.

Emmanuel Harris II - Preparatory research for a biography, "Facing the Rising Sun: Revisiting a Segregated School.

Ann Jennings - Preparation for teaching Introduction to Conflict Studies.

Julianne M. Miranda - The project, "The Development of Database Driven Templates for the Interactive Distribution of Sound and the Assessment of Student Response for Theory and Musicianship MUS 111-211," awarded to incorporate student and faculty use of technology in MUS 111-211 courses.

Jackie Roberts - Dissemination of New Pedagogical Developments: Adding Molecular Structure and Function to Biochemistry.

Approved by special administrative supplemental funds.

*FITS grant approved.