

Fisher Time-out Awards for 2003-2004

Fall

Carrie Klaus - To prepare an annotated bibliography of major literary works portraying travel to the moon in Seventeenth- and Eighteenth- Century France and England (in preparation for Cornélie De Vasse project).

William Little - "Dealing in Character: Suzan-Lori Parks' Topdog/Underdog." To write a chapter of a book-length study, Our Violent Make-Up.

Greg Schwipps - To publish the manuscript Night Fishing.

Bruce Stinebrickner - To do research for an article-length manuscript of the organizations responsible for governing and regulating sports competition among public high schools.

Chris White - To complete a final draft of the play Thaw.

Spring

Pedar Foss - Convert and scan book volumes (Turkey and The Corinthia/Argolid) into XSTAR-compliant SML and make available on the web

Matthew Hertenstein - To publish a theoretical article.

John Schlotterbeck - To complete chapter four in the manuscript Thomas Jefferson's "Chosen People of God": Rural Society and Culture in the Virginia Piedmont, 1714 to 1900.

FITS GRANT WITH RELEASED TIME AWARD

Michele Villinski - (Fall) To create a series of interactive demonstrations of economic concepts as a supplement to in-class lectures and activities associated with Econ 294: Intermediate Microeconomics.

FITS GRANT SUMMER STIPEND AWARD

Sherry Mou - (stipend) Integrate a web site and online discussion for the new course - Introduction to Chinese Culture (ASIA 106)