

Alumni Profiles

Jack Avery

1) Briefly tell us about your current job.

I am a consumer sales representative for Ashgrove Packaging. We produce concrete mix products for retail. I manage and expand my account base in Arkansas and Oklahoma.

2) Briefly tell us about your career path.

Started with Teach for America in Charlotte. Wanted to try business, so I shifted to my current position. I am now in the application process for Business School for MBA.

3) What were some of your activities at DePauw?

Beta Theta Pi, DePauw Football, Inter-Fraternity council, Relay for Life steering committee, DePauw.year1 mentor.

4) How has DePauw influenced your career (and perhaps, life)?

DPU instilled in me a strong work ethic that has allowed me to confront difficult and daunting tasks in my career.

5) What is the best career advice you would give students today?

Find a career/industry that you are passionate about and you will never wake up in the morning to go to work, you are waking up to go work on a hobby.

6) What city and state do you call home?

Fayetteville, Arkansas

7) What do you do in your free time?

Camp, hike, weightlifting, jogging, canoeing.

8) Where have you traveled in the past 5 years?

Quito, Ecuador and Jamaica.