Answers:

- 1) I am a Principal and Portfolio Manager at Geneva Capital Management, a Milwaukee based Asset Management firm. We Manage $1.6 billion in client assets primarily in our Mid-cap and Small-cap products.
- 2) I began my career at BigFatWow! Media Networks, an internet startup based in Dallas, TX. It was great experience to be on the ground floor of a rapidly growing company and even more beneficial to work through an incredibly challenging economic environment. After the tech bubble burst, I took a position in the Finance Group of Elanco, Eli Lilly's Animal Health Division. In 2004, I made the transition to my current employer and concurrently began the Weekend MBA program at the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business. I graduated from Chicago in 2007 and am currently studying for Level II of the CFA examination.
- 3) While at Depauw, I played baseball my freshman year, was President of my Fraternity (Phi Delta Theta), President of the Inter-Fraternity Council, and a Student Trustee.
- 4) DePauw is still a big part of my life. I am currently on the Alumni Board and look forward to returning to campus for the meetings. DePauw gave me a solid foundation of academics, leadership and a tremendous network from which to build my career.
- 5) Network, Network, Network. Never underestimate the power of a relationship.
- 6) Pewaukee, WI
- 7) I spend my free time with my family; My wife Lindsay and our two boys, Walker and Garrett.
- 8) In the past five years I have traveled to Zimbabwe, South Africa, Botswana, The Dominican Republic, Turks and Caicos and several U.S. locales.
