

ABOUT THE PARTICIPATING COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

The participating schools are members of the Great Lakes Colleges Association, a consortium formed to promote excellence in the liberal arts. Specifically, faculty and administrators from these schools cooperate to provide an outstanding liberal arts education. Excellence in teaching is a hallmark of these colleges! The student-to-faculty ratio on our campuses is 14:1.

Out-of-class and off-campus experiences are integral parts of a student's education, and students from these colleges sponsor over 14 popular off-campus study programs. Students acquire hands-on work experience through internships in several of these programs. All of the programs provide students with extraordinary opportunities to learn from other people and participate in activities through which they encounter national and international issues.

Our students' academic and out-of-class experiences further develop their leadership abilities, decision-making and problem-solving capacity, as well as their research, analytical and computer skills. We are anxious to have you meet our students.

Our colleges do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age or handicap in their educational programs and employment practices. We require that all participating employers provide equal educational and employment opportunities for all qualified candidates.

WORK CHICAGO Spring 2009

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 2009
CHICAGO

WORKCHICAGO SPRING 2009

What: an opportunity to interview students in Chicago on Friday, February 20.

Why: a chance to interview students from selective Midwestern colleges and universities.

Where: interviews conducted at your downtown office (or that of another participating employer).

How: you choose the students you want to interview from those who have indicated an interest in your company.

Next steps: contact Tom Cath at (765) 658-4279 or return the enclosed registration form.

EMPLOYERS SAY:

"It is obvious after meeting the students from the WorkChicago program that the liberal arts education they are receiving is preparing them for success in today's business environment. The students' broad skill set will allow them to adapt to the many different selling situations encountered on a daily basis to be successful as a radio sales executive."

BENEFITS OF INTERVIEWING STUDENTS ON FEBRUARY 20, 2009:

- You choose which and how many students you want to interview from resumes we forward to you at the students' request.
- The students will come to your office or another central location in Chicago for the interviews.
- We will handle all scheduling logistics and the advertising to students.
- Students are responsible for their travel and lodging.

BENEFITS OF RECRUITING FROM THIS CONSORTIUM:

- Students have extensive work experience through internships and study-abroad programs.
- Bright, ambitious, motivated and well-rounded students with excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Many of our students are from the Midwest; 45 states and 25 foreign countries are also represented.
- Combined enrollment of 7,000 students, 550 of whom are minority students.
- Collective spring graduating classes of 1,500 students.

EMPLOYERS SAY:

"WorkChicago has been a great recruitment tool for us. We have been able to meet with a number of great candidates that we would normally not be able to reach. The students we have interviewed have been bright, energetic and well-prepared, and I look forward to continuing our collaboration."
