

Nationally Competitive Scholarships Information Meetings, Fall 2009

FULBRIGHT U.S. STUDENT PROGRAM

Monday, August 31, 2009

Time: 4:00-5:00 PM

Place: 151 Julian

Are you interested in graduate study, research, or teaching outside of the U.S. following graduation from DePauw? The Fulbright Grant fosters intellectual and personal growth and gives you the opportunity to explore a new country, culture, and often a new language. Students apply as seniors and as DePauw graduates. The Information Meeting is open to all interested students. (Seniors applying for a Fulbright Grant will meet at this same hour in room 152 Julian, next door.)

APPLYING FOR FELLOWSHIPS & SCHOLARSHIPS

With a focus on UK, IRELAND, and GERMANY

Wednesday, September 2, 2009

Time: 4:00-5:00 PM

Place: Peeler Auditorium

You are invited to learn about prestigious graduate scholarships including the Rhodes, Marshall, Mitchell, Gates Cambridge, and DAAD (German Government), and to talk with faculty advisors about the process of applying for these scholarships.

NATIONALLY COMPETITIVE SCIENCE SCHOLARSHIPS

DAAD RISE, NIH, NSF, and others

Wednesday, September 9, 2009

Time: 4:00-5:00 PM

Place: 151 Julian

Science and mathematics majors and prospective majors are encouraged to attend this first science Scholarship and Internship Information Meeting of the new school year.
