GREENCASTLE, INDIANA

DePauw Tigers Softball Winter Clinic 2012

Site: DePauw Indoor Tennis and Track Facility

The DePauw University softball team made another mark in program history in 2011 by winning the NCAA Central Region Tournament and getting to the NCAA D-III Women's College World Series the 3rd time in school history.

The Tigers compete in the North Coast Athletic Conference Division and in 2012. Each year the Tigers compete at the NCAA D-III level and have been ranked in the top 25th the past four years.

Players at DePauw come from all over the country and have been top students at their high schools. DePauw athletes receive no athletic scholarships yet most of the softball players at DePauw have received Academic Scholarships. The teams GPA is also ranked in the top 50 in the country!

Camp Instructors

Bonnie Skrenta, a 2000 Providence College, (R.I.) graduate, is in her tenth season as DePauw's head softball coach. Coach Skrenta earned her Masters Degree in 2002 at Smith College (M.A).

Curtis Lawrence has entered his second season as DePauw's assistant softball coach. A 1992 graduate of Indiana State University, he has coached various sports at the high school level for 20 years. Currently a 5th grade teacher at Bainbridge Elementary School in Bainbridge, Indiana. Coach Lawrence earned his Masters Degree from Indiana Wesleyan University (I.N.) in 2002 and is a career educator.

Maya Ripecky is in her first season as a graduate assistant coach for DePauw softball and volleyball. Prior to coming to DePauw, she served for two years as an assistant coach at Trinity College (CT) in volleyball and softball. She also spent the last four years coaching with the Concord Raiders, a softball organization based in Massachusetts. A 2009 graduate of Tufts University, Ripecky was a New England all-star volleyball player and an All-NESCAC, All-New England, and All-American softball player for the Jumbos.
