Full-Time Jobs, Internships & Additional Opportunities

Recruiters coming on-campus to interview for internships, full-time positions

Already a number of recruiters have scheduled visits to campus this fall to speak with you. If you are interested in learning more about the following list of organizations and what job openings they have, log into your TigerTracks account. Some of the organizations with upcoming interviews scheduled are:

- Eli Lilly & Company - Human Resources, US Human Resources Associate and US Human Resources Associate Intern (apply by Oct. 10)

- Eli Lilly & Company - Information Technology, US Information & Technology Analyst and US Information & Technology Analyst Intern (apply by Oct. 10)

- SVM, SVM Fellowship (apply by Nov. 5) - This fellowship offers a unique opportunity for graduating seniors. In many entry-level positions, recent hires have little contact with the executive team and rarely engage with the upper tier of a corporation. By contrast, the SVM Fellowship exposes the Fellow to the many aspects of management. By providing direct support to the entire management team in the form of research, analysis, administrative and project support, and a variety of other miscellaneous assignments and tasks, the SVM Fellow can gain management insight while possessing only entry-level qualifications and experience.
