Full-time Jobs, Internships & Other Opportunities

Global Study Abroad Fair set for today (Monday)
Learn more about the programs and opportunities that exist in off-campus study. Program providers, faculty members and off-campus study returnees will be in attendance to answer your questions at the fair, which will run from 4-6 p.m. in the UB Ballroom. You can also learn about reasons to pursue study abroad, and how to take advantage of the fair, on the Hubbard Center blog. You can learn more about the program providers who will be in attendance and more about programs we provide on Horizons.

Summer Internship Grant Symposium set for Thursday
The symposium will include presentations from students who participated in the program last summer. You also will be able to receive more information about the program for summer 2015 at the symposium. Learn more about the internships grant recipients had last year. More information on summer 2015 will be available at the symposium.

Free online practice tests for graduate school entrance exams
Kaplan is hosting FREE Practice Tests for the GRE, GMAT, LSAT, MCAT, DAT, OAT or PCAT. The events are more convenient than ever as you can take exams live and online in the Classroom Anywhere environment. To register for a free online practice test, fill out this web form.

Alumni informational interviews set for Thursday
A variety of alumni from diverse fields will be in attendance for informational interviews on Thursday at 6 p.m. in the Union Building Ballroom. You can find biographies of the alumni participating in your TigerTracks account in the on-campus programs section under the Events tab. You will want to select a time for each graduate you would like to talk with during the evening. You can meet with up to 3.
Applications now open for 2015 Smithsonian Institution Fellowship Program
Graduate Fellows have the opportunity to do independent research in the largest museum in the world. The Smithsonian also has internships available. Learn more at www.si.edu/ofi

Orr Fellows event set for Wednesday evening
You can learn more about the Orr Fellowship and why it is an excellent career choice. The event will be Oct. 1 at 6:30 p.m. at Peeler Arts Center.

Additional Offerings

Note from Deb Jones, Director of Career Services in the Hubbard Center:
“Congratulations to those who attended the career fair on Thursday. We received many compliments from employers on your preparation and professionalism. In all, 239 students attended the fair, and more than 40 received LinkedIn profile photos. The employers in attendance were very pleased with the turnout, as well as your level of preparedness.”

Several Extended Studies courses still accepting applications
The Madrid to Malaga, Life after Mandela and The Economic, Political and Social Impact of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations still have space for Winter Term 2015. The South Africa After Mandela course also has spots open for May Term. Check out Horizons to learn more.

Price drop for Liberal Arts Management Program course for Winter Term
The Liberal Arts Management Program is also accepting applications, and the price has gone down as well. In addition, there is financial support available for students interested in the collaboration with IU’s Kelley School of Business. Learn more on the Horizons profile page.

Hubbard Center Media

Chelsea Naylor '14
Learn more about Chelsea's experiences studying around the world.

depauw.edu/hubbardcenter

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Monday (Oct. 6)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Carnegie Endowment for International Peace: Application Workshop #1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4 – 5 p.m.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Union Building, Room 221</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>