For Oct. 26 – Nov. 2 (For best results, log into TigerTracks. You can see previous newsletter editions in our Archive, and you can learn more about creating a resume, writing cover letters, conducting an interview and professional networking in our Career Services Guide.)

Full-time Jobs, Internships, & Additional Opportunities

Indianapolis Children’s Museum seeking interns
Internships are available in a variety of areas. Check out the Children’s Museum website to learn more. The application deadline is Nov. 1.

DePauw Phonathon is now hiring students
The Phonathon positions are available for work-study and non-work study eligible students, and provide a good opportunity to communicate with DePauw’s alumni network while contributing to the University's Annual Fund.

Cummins to visit campus on Nov. 3
Representatives from Cummins, an $18 billion Fortune 200 Company, will visit DePauw on Monday, Nov. 3. They will provide drop-in advising hours from 10:15 – 11:15 a.m. and 2-3:30 p.m. to answer any questions about Cummins and how to apply. There will be a general summer internships session from 4-5 p.m. in Daseke Boardroom (on the second floor) of the Union Building.

Anyone interested in an opportunity at Cummins needs to create a profile on careers.cummins.com. From there, applicants can identify available internships and roles by searching your areas of interest. Important Note: 2015 Summer Internships will fill up fast! All opportunities will be posted on careers.cummins.com by the end of October.

LeanIn at DePauw kick-off meeting set for Tuesday
The meeting will be at 8 p.m. in Peeler Auditorium. Lean In Circles are small groups who meet regularly to learn and grow together. Circles are as unique as the individuals who start them, but they all share a common bond: the power of peer support.
Nov. 21 the deadline for off-campus study applications for fall 2015
You can learn more by checking out programs listed on Horizons. You can learn more during the off-campus study group advising sessions each Thursday at 4 p.m. in the UB Lobby.

Phillips Exeter Academy Summer School accepting applications
Each year the academy invites a number of outstanding college graduate students, seniors and juniors who have expressed an interest in teaching as a career, to participate in an apprenticeship in residential school teaching with the Summer School Faculty. Learn more by checking out the academy’s listing on TigerTracks or apply on the Exeter Academy website.

Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Program now accepting applications
The Fellowship welcomes applications from individuals who want to make a difference in the world through service as Foreign Service Officers in the U.S. Department of State. The Rangel Graduate Fellowship Program provides benefits of up to $95,000 over two years toward a two-year master's degree, arranges internships on Capitol Hill and at U.S. embassies, and provides mentorship and professional development support. Information can be found at www.rangelprogram.org. The application deadline is Jan. 14, 2015.

Additional Opportunities

Debut Career and Service presentation set for Friday
Courtney Knies, Executive Director of Mentor for Youth of Dubois County will be the first speaker in the new brown bag lunch series Final Fridays: Career & Service. She will give a presentation about running a non-profit organization, focusing on how her foundation of philanthropic service was molded and enhanced through her DePauw experience. Courtney’s presentation will be from 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 31 in UB 231-232. She will also be available for walk-in career advising during the afternoon at the Hubbard Center. Please RSVP on TigerTracks for this event.

October is Careers in Student Affairs month
Would you like to work with college students helping them to adjust to college life or find where they fit in their college community? Would you like to help them become leaders, contribute to their communities, find their career direction or explore their world? Then Student Affairs might be the career for you. If you would like to explore this as a career option, get in touch with someone from Student Life or the Hubbard Center for Student Engagement. We are happy to talk about career options in the field of Student Affairs!
University of Illinois Graduate School of Library and Information Science (GSLIS) recruiting applicants
The university is actively recruiting high quality doctoral students who want to design, develop, and evaluate informatics solutions to the grand challenges of the twenty-first century. Admitted candidates typically receive up to 4 years of funding in the form of research, teaching and service assistantships, including tuition waivers and stipends. Additional information about research at GSLIS is available at http://www.lis.illinois.edu/research/projects. For specific information about the PhD program, please visit http://www.lis.illinois.edu/academics/degrees/phd or contact lis-apply@illinois.edu. The application deadline is Dec. 15.

Hubbard Center Media

Jazzkia Jones

Jazzkia discusses her summer internship, which was made possible through the Summer Internship Grant Program.

depauw.edu/hubbardcenter