As the fall semester gets underway, we want you to know that starting Monday, Sept. 1, you will begin receiving the Hubbard Center Weekly. This e-newsletter includes a schedule of the week's Hubbard Center programming, along with opportunities such as internships, job leads, and additional opportunities that the Hubbard Center receives. You can review this information to help plan for your time at DePauw, including during summers, to prepare you to accomplish your lifelong goals after you graduate.

We have included some valuable information to get you started below. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions, or would like to begin planning your DePauw experience.

Regards,

Raj Bellani
Dean of Experiential Learning and Career Planning
Hubbard Center for Student Engagement

---

Full-Time Jobs, Internships & Other Opportunities

Connect with Hubbard Center media and use hashtag #hubbardgoals for a chance to win a $15 Starbucks card

By combining Off-Campus Study, Career Services, and Fellowships & Awards to help you plan your time at DePauw, the Hubbard Center can help you identify your strengths, majors and opportunities of interest, and help connect you to those opportunities to prepare you for life after you graduate! Connect with Hubbard Center media including Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube. When you follow us on Twitter, tweet how the Hubbard Center can help you, or share how you have received help from the Hubbard Center. Use the hashtag #hubbardgoals, and you will have a chance to win one of five $15 Starbucks cards.

Orr Fellowship now accepting applications

The Orr Fellowship is a two-year, full-time position with salary and benefits at an innovative technology company in Indianapolis. The program exposes recent graduates to the progressive and dynamic entrepreneurial business scene. Submit your application at www.orrfellowship.org by Oct. 3 for consideration. Visit TigerTracks for more information on dates that Fellows will be on campus during the fall.
Hubbard Center can prepare you for graduate school search, opportunities
If you are interested in pursuing graduate school, the Hubbard Center can help. From graduate exam prep courses during Winter Term to practice interviews, we can help prepare you for taking that next step. Schedule a meeting with a Hubbard Center adviser to discuss how we can help you by calling 765.658.4622.

Walk-in advising hours to begin Monday
Starting September 1, the Hubbard Center will once again host walk-in advising hours from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. from Monday thru Thursday in the Hubbard Center lounge. The Hubbard Center also will host walk-in afternoon hours from 3 to 4:30 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays. During these times, advisers can provide cover letter and resume reviews, as well as answer general questions about Hubbard Center programming. You are encouraged to schedule a one-on-one advising appointment to discuss your goals and interests more in-depth by calling 765.658.4622.

Fellowships & Awards available for study, research and teaching domestically & abroad
There are multiple awards available to help you pursue study, research and teaching across a wide range of disciplines both domestically and abroad. Awards are available to both undergraduates and graduates of DePauw. Learn more about some of these fellowships & awards, then schedule an appointment with Kate Knaul, the director of Fellowships & Awards, to discuss the opportunities of greatest interest to you. Taking time to explore them now will allow you to cultivate a strong portfolio of experiences and skills that will make you a competitive applicant when it comes time to apply.

Specific awards that you can apply to as a senior include Pickering Fellowship for Foreign Service, Fulbright award for study, research or teaching English abroad, NSF Graduate Research Fellowship, James Madison Fellowship for teaching government, Soros Scholarship for new Americans, the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship for teaching in science and math, and a number of others for graduate study. Many awards have fall deadlines, so start now!

Edward Jones financial advisor career development program available
The nine-month career development program will provide the training for recent college graduates to begin establishing their career. Learn more by checking out the post on TigerTracks, and also the Edward Jones website.

Laura Bush Traveling Fellowship accepting applications until Sept. 22
The fund will provide funding to cover the costs to do brief work in another country that relates to the mandate of UNESCO to build strong ties among nations. Learn more about this Fellowship opportunity.

Learn about the Pre-Law sequence to prepare you for law school
If you are interested in pursuing law school, learn more about how to prepare by visiting the Hubbard Center’s Pre-Law pages. This includes information on the recommended timeline to plan out your application, and the new Pre-Law Course Sequence developed last spring by the Philosophy Department. Contact Deb Jones, director of career services, to discuss your law school options.

Additional Offerings
Explore faculty-led off-campus programs during Winter and May Terms
Applications for faculty-led courses will be accepted until September 15. Visit Horizons to apply, or schedule an appointment with Karolyn Wojtowicz, coordinator of off-campus learning, to learn about what off-campus study options are right for you.

Liberal Arts Management Program accepting applications for Winter Term 2015
The Winter Term 2015 program is a collaboration between DePauw and Indiana University’s Kelley School of Business and provides you with the organizational management lessons to help you best incorporate your liberal arts education in a variety of settings. The program is accepting applications until September 15. More information can be found on the program page, and the application is available on Horizons.

Developing an International Career
Even if you have not studied off-campus for a semester, but are interested in an international career, you can visit the Hubbard Center to learn more. Also, if you would like information on creating a CV for an international opportunity, interviewing abroad, companies likely to hire international students, and anything else as it relates to your job search, we encourage you to use Going Global. Schedule an advising appointment with the Hubbard Center to discuss pursuing international career opportunities.
Hubbard Center Media

Introduction from Dean Bellani
Learn more about Raj's philosophy for the Hubbard Center, and his goals for you when you graduate.

David Acton ’15
Learn more about senior music student David Acton's experience studying off-campus in Europe.

Jon Fortt ’98
Listen to the advice of Jon Fortt, CNBC on-air editor and this year's winner of DePauw's Young Alumni Award.