As the fall semester gets underway, we want you to know that starting Monday, Sept. 1, you will begin receiving the Hubbard Center Weekly. This e-newsletter includes a schedule of the week’s Hubbard Center programming, along with opportunities such as internships, job leads, and additional opportunities that the Hubbard Center receives. You can review this information to help plan for your time at DePauw, including during summers, to prepare you to accomplish your lifelong goals after you graduate.

We have included a preview of information below. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions, or would like to begin planning your DePauw experience.

Regards,

Raj Bellani
Dean of Experiential Learning and Career Planning
Hubbard Center for Student Engagement

Jobs, Internships & Other Opportunities

Connect with Hubbard Center media and use hashtag #hubbardgoals for a chance to win a $15 Starbucks card

Whether you have a plan for your time at DePauw, or unsure of what academic major would interest you, the Hubbard Center can help you out! By combining Off-Campus Study, Career Services, and Fellowships & Awards to help you plan your time at DePauw, we can help you identify your strengths, majors and opportunities of interest, and help connect you to those opportunities to prepare you for life after you graduate! Connect with Hubbard Center media including Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube! When you follow us on Twitter, tweet how the Hubbard Center can help you, or share how you have received help from the Hubbard Center. Use the hashtag #hubbardgoals, and you will have a chance to win one of five $15 Starbucks cards.

Fill out your TigerTracks profile

As you are starting the year, be sure to complete (or update) your TigerTracks profile. This way you can take advantage of the links and opportunities that the Hubbard Center receives from alumni, employers and additional opportunity providers, which are included in TigerTracks. Sign into TigerTracks to gain access.

Walk-in advising hours to begin Monday

Starting September 1, the Hubbard Center will once again host walk-in advising hours from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. from Monday thru Thursday in the Hubbard Center lounge. The Hubbard Center also will host walk-in afternoon hours from 3 to 4:30 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays. During these times, advisers can provide cover letter and resume reviews, as well as answer general questions about Hubbard Center programming. You are encouraged to schedule a one-on-one advising appointment to discuss your goals and interests more in-depth by calling 765.658.4622.
Participate in the Learning through Experiential Applications Program (LEAP)
LEAP rewards you for taking steps to plan to make the most of your time at DePauw. Learn more, including from Deb Jones, our career services director. To join the program, e-mail Deb.

Apply for the White House internship program
The White House has internships available throughout the year. Visit the White House internship program website to learn more.

Laura Bush Traveling Fellowship accepting applications until Sept. 22
The fund will provide funding to cover the costs to do brief work in another country that relates to the mandate of UNESCO to build strong ties among nations. Learn more about this Fellowship opportunity.

Edward Jones summer internship opportunities available for next summer
The financial advisor summer internship program is a 10-week opportunity. Learn more by checking out the post on TigerTracks, and also the Edward Jones website. The application deadline is Nov. 30.

Fellowships & Awards available for study, research and teaching domestically & abroad
There are multiple awards available to help you pursue study, research and teaching across a wide range of disciplines both domestically and abroad. Awards are available to both undergraduates and graduates of DePauw. Learn more about some of these fellowships & awards, then schedule an appointment with Kate Knaul, the director of Fellowships & Awards, to discuss the opportunities of greatest interest to you. Taking time to explore them now will allow you to cultivate a strong portfolio of experiences and skills that will make you a competitive applicant when it comes time to apply.

Specific awards that you can apply to as a sophomore include Gilman Scholarship for International Study, Boren Scholarship for International Study, Udall Scholarship for Environment or Native American Studies, EPA GRO summer internship, DAAD RISE summer science research, and the Hollings Scholarship for oceanic and atmospheric science. Many awards have fall deadlines, so start now!

Additional Offerings
Explore faculty-led off-campus programs during Winter and May Terms
Applications for faculty-led courses will be accepted until September 15. Visit Horizons to apply, or schedule an appointment with Karolyn Wojtowicz, coordinator of off-campus learning, to learn about what off-campus study options are right for you.

Learn about the Pre-Law sequence to prepare you for law school
If you are interested in pursuing law school, learn more about how to prepare by visiting the Hubbard Center's Pre-Law pages. This includes information on the recommended timeline to plan out your application, and the new Pre-Law Course Sequence developed last spring by the Philosophy Department. Contact Deb Jones, director of career services, to discuss your law school options.

Liberal Arts Management Program accepting applications for Winter Term 2015
The Winter Term 2015 program is a collaboration between DePauw and Indiana University's Kelley School of Business and provides you with the organizational management lessons to help you best incorporate your liberal arts education in a variety of settings. The program is accepting applications until September 15. More information can be found on the program page, and the application is available on Horizons.

Apply to Study Off-Campus in 2015-16
It's a perfect time to start planning to study off-campus during the 2015-16 academic year. Learn more about off-campus study. Attend the Global Fair on September 29 from 4-6 p.m. in the Union Building Ballroom to learn more about the over 120 off-campus study programs DePauw students can choose from. Come to general information sessions offered at the Hubbard Center every Thursday from 4-5 p.m., and at select departments. To schedule an appointment with an off-campus study adviser, call x4622.
Hubbard Center Media

Introduction from Dean Bellani
Learn more about Raj's philosophy for the Hubbard Center, and his goals for you when you graduate.

David Acton '15
Learn more about senior music student David Acton's experience studying off-campus in Europe.

Jon Fortt '98
Listen to the advice of Jon Fortt, CNBC on-air editor and this year's winner of DePauw's Young Alumni Award.