(September 15-21. For best results, log into TigerTracks. You can see previous editions in our Archive, and you can learn more about creating a resume, writing cover letter, conducting an interview and networking in our Career Services Guide.)

Internships, Jobs & Other Opportunities

Today (Monday) deadline for faculty-led off-campus study programs in 2015
The applications are now a rolling basis so you are encouraged to apply sooner rather than later. Any program that has an "apply" button next to it still has openings. Visit Horizons to learn more.

Price reduction in Liberal Arts Management Program collaboration with IU’s Kelley School of Business
The price for the Winter Term 2015 collaboration program with the Kelley School of Business has been reduced, and financial support is available as well. Visit the program page on Horizons for more information.

12th Annual Professional & Graduate School Fair set for Thursday
The fair will feature more than 40 participants from universities and programs representing a wide variety of industries. The fair will be from 11 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. in the Union Building Ballroom.

At the fair, Kaplan will give away a free Kaplan Test Prep Course Scholarship valued at up to $2,000 and will be valid for the MCAT, LSAT, GRE, GMAT, DAT, OAT or PCAT. The course can be used on Kaplan's OnSite, Classroom Anywhere or On Demand options. Please come visit the Kaplan table during the event to register to win!

Resume Blitz this week
The Hubbard Center will be offering hours to critique your resume every day this week from 3 – 5 p.m. in the Union Building Lobby. The Resume Blitz is just in time to update your resume to attend an upcoming job fair, to apply for a short-term internship, off-campus study or to submit for upcoming on-campus interviews.
Multiple opportunities available with Hill-Rom Holding
The company has opportunities in its Financial Leadership Development Program and a Financial Analyst internship. Visit TigerTracks to learn more.

Goldman Sachs offering analyst summer internship
The 10-week internship opportunities are available at all of Goldman Sachs’s principal locations.

Interview Skills Workshop hosted by Eli Lilly and Company on Tuesday, advising on Thursday
Lilly representatives from Human Resources, Finance, and IT will be present, and students are welcome to stay after to discuss job opportunities after the session. The session will be at 6 p.m. in Julian 147. Marvin’s will be provided.

Lilly representatives from Human Resources will be present to give career advice, resume suggestions and discuss job opportunities on Thursday from 6 – 8:30 p.m. in the Union Building Lobby. Lilly HR has full-time and internship opportunities available in TigerTracks.

Additional Opportunities
Networking Etiquette program set for Tuesday
Networking is vital for your job or internship search. Hubbard Center staff will share expectations of those in your network, how to best communicate and what to do once you have connected with a new contact. The session will be at 4 p.m. in UB 221.

West Monroe Partners to help students prep for job fairs Tuesday
West Monroe Partners, a Chicago based consulting firm regularly recruits at job fairs and will be here to share with students how to best prepare and make that great connection at the next job fair you attend. The session will be Tuesday at 11:45 a.m. in Julian 147.

Suture Clinic, info session on Start the Heart Foundation set for Thursday
Phi Delta Epsilon and Kaplan are hosting a suture clinic on Thursday at 6 p.m. in Olin 140! This event is open to all DePauw students but you must register beforehand because space is limited. Kaplan will provide pigs feet and oranges to practice stitches, and Dr. Scott Ripple and DePauw alumnus Dr. William Dillon ’87, a Louisville, Ken.-based cardiologist, will teach us a few different techniques. Immediately following the clinic, Dr. Dillon will tell us about his Start the Heart Foundation, which works to improve cardiac arrest rates around Kentucky by offering educational outreach programs that teach CPR techniques to local community members. Dr. Dillon will also highlight the 2015 Winter Term opportunities available in Louisville, Ken., through his foundation for DePauw's pre-medical students.
Pre-Law Advising available with the Hubbard Center
Students interested in pursuing a career in law should schedule an advising appointment with Deb Jones, director of career services, to discuss possibilities and best approaches. You can also learn more by visiting the Pre-Law section of the Hubbard Center website.

32nd Annual Career Exploration Day Fair set for Sept. 25
Check out the Career Exploration Day Fair, where you will be able to meet with recruiters and learn about more than 30 organizations in many different industries. The fair will be from 11 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Off-Campus Study Global Fair to be held Sept. 29
Representatives from programs representing locations around the world will discuss opportunities to study or intern off-campus for a semester. You can see a list of those who are scheduled to attend here. Feel encouraged to ask questions from the recruiters and get information about the programs that interest you. The fair will be from 4 - 6 p.m. in the UB Ballroom. You can also learn more by visiting Horizons.

Hubbard Center Media

Ben Solomon’10

Learn from Ben’s perspective of working in media, including with The New York Times.

depauw.edu/hubbardcenter