For September 8-14. (For best results, log into TigerTracks.)

Full-Time Jobs, Internships, & Other Opportunities

Monday, Sept. 15 is deadline to apply for faculty-led off-campus programs in 2015
The applications are now a rolling basis so you are encouraged to apply sooner rather than later. Any program that has an "apply" button next to it still has openings. Visit Horizons to learn more.

Paid short-term internship with Van Ausdall & Farrar available
Learn more about this technology sales and service opportunity by checking out the posting on TigerTracks.

Passport Days set for today (Monday)
Visit the Hubbard Center lobby on Monday to get your passport photo taken. Photos will be taken from 11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Use hashtag #hubbardgoals for a chance to win a $15 Starbucks card
Connect with the Hubbard Center on Facebook and Twitter to keep updated on things going on. Once you connect, use hashtag #hubbardgoals and describe how the Center has helped you, or your goals for the Center to help you this year, for a chance to win a $15 Starbucks card.

Young Entrepreneurs Across America to host information session Tuesday
YEAA is a consulting company, specializing in marketing and management, that gives motivated students an opportunity to run their own business during the summer. The company provides the finances and the training; you provide the hard work, communication and leadership! The presentation will be 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. in UB 221.
Recruiters already planning visits for interviews on campus
Already a number of recruiters have scheduled visits to campus this fall to speak with you. If you are interested in learning more about organizations and job openings, log into your TigerTracks account. Those with posted opportunities include:

- Cancer Treatment Centers of America, Management Fellowship (Apply by Oct. 2, 2014)

- DigitalKnowledge, Associate Consultant (Apply by Sept. 29, 2011)

Orr Fellows to visit campus on Thursday
The Governor Bob Orr Entrepreneurial Fellowship will join the Hubbard Center for Walk-in Advising hours from 2-5 p.m. and will be hosting an Evening with Orr Fellows at the Fluttering Duck from 8-10:30 p.m. The events are open to all students; seniors are encouraged to attend.

Great Oaks Tutor Corp. seeking Fellowship applicants for 2015-16
Great Oaks Tutor Corp. Urban Education Fellowship is a highly selective residency that recruits college graduates from across the country to commit to a one-year term of service in urban education. The Tutor Corps experience is both rewarding and life-changing.

Register to attend Connections 2014 in Indianapolis on Sept. 25 for free
The annual conference provides an opportunity to learn more about digital marketing. College attendees will get the chance to hear from John Green, the New York Times bestselling author of The Fault in Our Stars, marketing leaders and writer/actor/producer Mindy Kaling. For questions or to register, contact Austin Arceo in the Hubbard Center.

Additional Opportunities

Networking Etiquette session set for Thursday
The networking program will be at 11:45 a.m. in UB 221. While networking is obviously important for your job or internship search, more important is how you do it. This is a LEAP required event.
Information session on short-term internships set for today (Monday)
This session will guide you through your search process, as well as provide information about the requirements for this Winter Term Extended Studies option. The meeting will be at 4 p.m. in Julian 147.

Short-term internship opportunity available with Start the Heart Foundation
The Louisville-based nonprofit has multiple openings for the Winter Term short-term internships available for January 2015.

Gilman Workshop set for Thursday
This workshop is part of a series that helps students learn about and navigate the application process. The meeting is set for 4 p.m. in Julian 157.

Internships with State Legislature available
The Indiana House Democratic Caucus and Indiana House Republican Caucus offer internships for students. Learn more at the respective websites.

Hubbard Center Media

Junior Mary Xiao discusses her summer internship experience with Main Street Greencastle.

depauw.edu/hubbardcenter