

Michael A. Terry
President and CEO
Indianapolis Public Transportation Corporation (IndyGo)

Joined IndyGo (Indianapolis Public Transportation Corporation) in 2003 as the Director for Business Development responsible for marketing, communications, government and community relations and planning and growth strategies. Assumed the role of president and chief operating officer in 2009.

Mike Terry is a seasoned management professional leading organizations at the executive level in both the public and private sectors. With his entrepreneurial approach to management, he has initiated programs in the areas of leadership, strategic utilization of human capital, efficiencies, management training and development and service delivery systems.

Mike received his Bachelor of Arts degree from DePauw University, Masters of Business Administration from Butler University and is a graduate of the Indiana Governor's Executive Management School and served on the HR advisory board for the Indiana University Kelley School of Business.

In addition to receiving recognition on a national level for his leadership in Management and Quality Service, Mike has presented and facilitated programs on diversity, cultural changes in corporate reorganization, executive coaching and supervisory skills and reinventing service delivery.

Mike is active in the community serving on boards and committees with various non-profit and faith-based organizations.