DePauw University
Panhellenic Association Bylaws & Standing Rules

Article I. Name
The name of this organization shall be the DePauw University Panhellenic Association.

Article II. Object
The object of the Panhellenic Association shall be to develop and maintain women's fraternity life and interfraternity relations at a high level of accomplishment and in so doing to:

1. Consider the goals and ideals of member groups as continually applicable to campus and personal life.
2. Promote superior scholarship and basic intellectual development.
3. Cooperate with member women's fraternities and the university/college administration in concern for and maintenance of high social and moral standards.
4. Act in accordance with National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) Unanimous Agreements, policies and best practices.
5. Act in accordance with such rules established by the Panhellenic Council as to not violate the sovereignty, rights and privileges of member women's fraternities.

Article III. Membership
Section 1. Membership Classes
There shall be three classes of membership: regular, provisional and associate.

1. Regular membership. The regular membership of the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall be composed of all chapters of NPC fraternities at DePauw University. Regular members of the College Panhellenic Council shall pay dues as determined by the College Panhellenic Council. Each regular member shall have voice and one vote on all matters.

2. Provisional membership. The provisional membership of the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall be composed of all colonies of NPC fraternities at DePauw University. Provisional members shall pay no dues and shall have voice but no vote on all matters. A provisional member shall automatically become a regular member upon being installed as a chapter of an NPC fraternity.

3. Associate membership. Local sororities or national or regional non-NPC member groups may apply for associate membership of the DePauw University Panhellenic Association. The membership eligibility requirements and the process for submitting an application and approval of the application shall be determined by the Panhellenic Council. Associate members shall pay dues as determined by the College Panhellenic Council. An associate member shall have voice and one vote on all matters except extension-related matters and, if they are not participating in the formal recruitment process, they shall not have a vote on recruitment rules and establishment or modification of Panhellenic total. An associate member may be expelled for cause by a majority vote of the Panhellenic Council. An associate member shall not be entitled to vote on the question of its expulsion.
Section 2. Privileges and Responsibilities of Membership

1. Duty of compliance. All members, without regard to membership class, shall comply with all NPC Unanimous Agreements and be subject to these DePauw University Panhellenic Association bylaws, code of ethics and any additional rules this Panhellenic Association may adopt unless otherwise prescribed in these bylaws. Any rules adopted by this Panhellenic Association in conflict with the NPC Unanimous Agreements shall be void.

Article IV. Officers and Duties

Section 1. Officers

The officers of the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall be President, Vice President of Risk Management, Vice President of Recruitment, Vice President of Programming, Director of Communication, Director of Scholarship, Director of Service and Philanthropy and Director of Administration.

Section 2. Eligibility

Eligibility to serve as an officer shall depend on the class of membership:

1. Regular membership. Members from women's fraternities holding regular membership in the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall be eligible to serve as any officer.

2. Provisional membership. Members from women's fraternities holding provisional membership in the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall not be eligible to serve as an officer.

3. Associate membership. Members from women's fraternities holding associate membership in the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall be eligible to serve as an officer except president or the officer in charge of recruitment.

Section 3. Selection of Officers

The offices of President, Vice President of Risk Management, Vice President of Recruitment, Vice President of Programming, Director of Communication, Director of Scholarship, Director of Service and Philanthropy and Director of administration of the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall be elected by ⅔ vote by the delegates passing the slate.

Section 4. Office-Holding Limitations

No more than 2 member(s) from the same women's fraternity shall hold office during the same term.

Section 5. Nomination Procedure

A nominating committee of eight members will be established by the DePauw University Panhellenic Executive Council one month before the start of elections. Four members from the Panhellenic Executive Council will sit on the committee. Four additional outstanding women will be chosen from the DePauw University Panhellenic community by the Executive Council. This is to ensure a fair representation of the six member fraternities. The members of the nominating committee shall elect their own chairman. The nominating committee shall consider the qualifications of all candidates for elected officers and shall nominate at least one name for each elected officer position. The nominating committee shall be charged with the entire duty of choosing new officers through applications, recommendations and interviews. The Panhellenic advisor shall serve as a nonvoting ex-officio member of the nominating committee.

Updated September 2014

1. Two weeks before the election date, the nominating committee shall post at a regular business meeting their proposed slate of the incoming council.

2. Applicants who filled out a complete Panhellenic Executive Council application and attended an interview with the nominating committee but were not placed for voting can run from the floor. Candidates shall give the Panhellenic Executive Council one week’s notice before running from the floor. All candidates running from the floor and those being challenged must give a three minute speech.

3. On the election date delegates will vote to approve the slate and/or any challenges to the slate.

Section 6. Term
The officers shall serve for a term of one year or until their successors are selected. The officers will be elected near the end of the fall semester and their term of office will begin the following February after the completion of formal recruitment.

Section 7. Removal
Any officer may be removed for cause by a vote of two-thirds of the Panhellenic Council.

Section 8. Vacancies
Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner of selection as provided in Section 3 of this article.

DePauw University
Panhellenic Association Bylaws & Standing Rules

Section 2. Authority
The Panhellenic advisor shall serve in an advisory capacity to the DePauw University Panhellenic Association. The Panhellenic advisor shall have voice but no vote in all meetings of the Panhellenic Council and the Executive Council.

Article VIII. Committees

Section 1. Standing Committees
1. The standing committees of the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall be the Judicial Board and Membership Recruitment Committee.
2. Term. The standing committees shall serve for a term of one year, which shall coincide with the term of the officers.

Section 2. Appointment of Committee Membership
The DePauw University Panhellenic Executive Council shall appoint members and chairmen of all standing and special committees, except as provided otherwise in these bylaws, and, in making these appointments, recognize fair representation from all member women fraternities as much as possible. The president shall be an ex-officio member of all committees except the Judicial Board and the Alumnae Advisory Council.

Section 3. Judicial Board
The Judicial Board shall consist of the Director of Administration as the chairman and five members from the College Panhellenic member groups. The Panhellenic advisor shall serve as a nonvoting ex-officio member. The five women serving on the Judicial Board will be chosen from the Panhellenic Cabinet based on availability and to ensure the community is represented equally. The Judicial Board members shall participate in training to be educated about the purpose of the board, the rules and regulations the Judicial Board will monitor, the procedures to be followed, proper questioning techniques, the rights of the charged organizations, evaluating evidence, and deliberations and sanctioning. The Judicial Board shall educate member fraternities about the Panhellenic judicial procedure. It shall be the Judicial Board's duty to hold a hearing to adjudicate all alleged violations of the NPC Unanimous Agreements and the bylaws, code of ethics, standing rules and membership recruitment regulations of the DePauw University Panhellenic Association that are not settled informally or through mediation. The hearing shall be conducted by the entire Judicial Board unless Panhellenic Council adopts rules for the hearing to be conducted by a committee of the Judicial Board. The members of the Judicial Board shall maintain confidentiality throughout and upon completion of the judicial process. For more information about the Judicial Process see Appendix II.

Section 4. Membership Recruitment Committee
The Membership Recruitment Committee shall consist of a chairman and one representative from each regular, provisional, and associate member. Alumnae advisors may attend meetings of the committee. The alumnae advisors shall have voice but no vote. This committee shall review and develop membership recruitment rules and submit them for discussion and approval to the Panhellenic Council before the end of the academic term preceding the membership recruitment period. After each membership recruitment period, the chairman of this committee shall present a full report, including recommendations, to the Panhellenic Council based on an analysis of the recruitment statistics and recruitment evaluations from new members, potential new members who withdrew, each member group and chapter advisor.

Section 5. Other Committees

- Other such committees, standing or special, shall be appointed as deemed necessary by the Panhellenic Council.

1. The Panhellenic Cabinet shall consist of up to 12 members. Two women from each member's fraternity will be elected by the Panhellenic Executive Council after individual member fraternities submit a list of women in their chapter to be selected. All cabinet women will be trained as Judicial Board members. In the event a judicial hearing is needed, five members from the cabinet will serve on the board. These members will be selected based on time availability and fair representation of the six member fraternities. The members on this committee cannot be a Panhellenic delegate or Recruitment Counselor within the same academic year, but can hold an executive board position within their member group.

Article IX. Finances

Section 1. Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall be from February (after the conclusion of formal recruitment) to January (at the end of the conclusion of the Panhellenic Executive Council term inclusive.)

Section 2. Contracts

Dual signatures of the Director of Administration and the Panhellenic Advisor shall be required to bind the DePauw University Panhellenic Association on any contract.

Section 3. Checks

All checks issued on behalf of the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall bear dual signatures. The following shall be authorized to be one of the two required signatures: President, Vice President of Recruitment, Director of Administration and Vice President of Programming.

Section 4. Payments

All payments due to the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall be received by the treasurer, who shall record them. Checks for payments shall be made payable to the DePauw University Panhellenic Association.

Section 5. Dues

1. NPC College Panhellenic dues shall be paid yearly as invoiced by the NPC office.
2. Panhellenic Association membership dues shall be an assessment per member and new member.
3. The amount of such dues for the next academic year shall be determined by the Panhellenic Council no later than February of that year.
4. The dues of each Panhellenic Association member fraternity shall be payable on or before April 30. This date will be announced in advance and set on an annual or academic term basis.

Section 6. Fees and Assessments
The Panhellenic Council shall have the authority to determine fees and assessments as may be considered necessary.

Article X. Extension
Section 1. Extension is the process of adding an NPC women’s fraternity.
The DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall follow all NPC Unanimous Agreements and NPC extension guidelines found on the NPC website and in the Manual of Information.

Section 2. Voting rights
Only regular members of the Panhellenic Council shall vote on extension matters.

Article XI. Violation Resolution
Section 1. Violation
Chapters shall be held accountable for the conduct of their individual collegiate and alumnae members. Conduct contrary to the NPC Unanimous Agreements, these bylaws, the Panhellenic code of ethics, standing rules and/or membership recruitment regulations of the DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall be considered a violation.

Section 2. Informal resolution
Members are encouraged to resolve alleged violations through informal discussion with the involved parties.

Section 3. Judicial process
If informal discussions are unsuccessful, the judicial process will be set in motion by filing a report of the alleged violation. The DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall follow all mediation guidelines found in the Manual of Information.

1. Mediation. Mediation is the first step of the judicial process. The DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall follow all NPC Unanimous Agreements concerning the judicial process found in the Manual of Information.
2. Judicial Board hearing. When a violation is not settled informally or through mediation, the Judicial Board shall resolve the issue in a Judicial Board hearing. The Panhellenic Council shall adopt procedures in the standing rules for these purposes that are consistent with the NPC Unanimous Agreements.
3. Appeal of Judicial Board decision. A decision of the Judicial Board may be appealed by any involved party to the NPC College Panhellenics Judicial Appeal Committee. The DePauw University Panhellenic Association shall follow all NPC Unanimous Agreements concerning the appeals process found in the Manual of Information.

Article XII. Hazing
Per the Unanimous Agreements, the National Panhellenic Conference supports all efforts to eliminate hazing. All forms of hazing shall be banned.

Article XIII. Parliamentary Authority
The rules contained in the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the DePauw University Panhellenic Association in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the NPC Unanimous Agreements, these bylaws and any special rules of order the DePauw University Panhellenic Association may adopt.

Article XIV. Amendment of Bylaws
These bylaws may be amended at any regular or special meeting of the DePauw University Panhellenic Council by a two-thirds vote, provided that the proposed amendment has been announced and submitted in writing at the previous regular meeting allowing an opportunity for chapter input.

Article XV. Dissolution
This Association shall be dissolved when only one regular member exists at DePauw University. In the event of the dissolution of this Association none of the assets of the Association shall be distribute to any members of the Association, but after payment of the debts of the Association its assets shall be given to the National Panhellenic Conference.

STANDING RULES
A College Panhellenic Association may wish to adopt additional rules that pertain to the administration of the association. This type of rules belongs in standing rules rather than bylaws. Standing rules are written as a separate document from the bylaws, but should be attached to and distributed with the bylaws. The following topics (as well as others) are best suited for standing rules:

- Awards
  1. This process is coordinated through Campus Living and Community Development and Order of Omega.
- Social Events
  1. This process is coordinated through Campus Living and Community Development.
- Recruitment Rules (Appendix I)
  1. Code of Ethics
  2. Recruitment Counselor selection requirements and expectations
