Clifton J. Phillips Archives Research Award 2015

- Enter the Archives Research Contest and have your work published on the Archives and Special Collections website.
- Receive recognition at the awards convocation in May.
- Receive award of $250

Contest Rules

- Entries must have been created during the student’s four years at DePauw
- Exclusive use of the Archives is not required, but a significant portion of the research for the project must have been conducted from resources in the Archives
- All entries should be footnoted when applicable; citation style appropriate to the discipline
- Entries may be submitted on paper or electronically
- Enter any time through Thursday, May 21, 2015
- Examples include, but are not limited to: Traditional typewritten research papers, multi-media productions or web sites incorporating photographic, moving image, music or spoken word files, etc. ...