

ABOUT THE HEAD COACH

SCOTT RIGGLE

Scott Riggle begins his 12th year with the Tigers. The team has compiled a 236-97 record in his first 10 years, and his career coaching record stands at 518-167. DePauw earned a trip to the NCAA national championships in 2001, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the quarterfinal round in 2003 and 2006. They finished 2006 ranked 5th in the nation and 1st in the region. The 2003 squad broke the previous school record of 20 wins in a season and finished with a mark of 25-4.

Riggle has been a certified teaching professional, licensed by the United States Professional Tennis Registry, for 25 years. He has also coached the University of Indianapolis men's team, the Columbus (Ind.) North High School girls' team, and the Columbus (Ind.) East High School boys' team. He has enjoyed success as a player as well, finishing 1996 and 1998 as the top-ranked men's singles player in the Central Indiana Tennis Association. He finished 2002 ranked first in 35 and over doubles in Central Indiana. He holds a B.A. and an M.A. in English from the University of Indianapolis, where he earned recognition as a first team academic all-American every year of his collegiate career.

Riggle coached Liz Bondi to DePauw's first NCAA singles championship in the spring of 2007. In the fall of 2004, Bondi and partner Elizabeth Steele became the first representatives in the history of Division III to win the Small College Super Bowl, a feat which earned them a trip to the Division I indoor national championships.

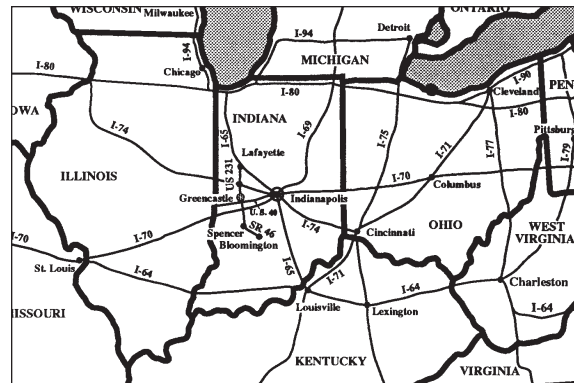

ABOUT DEPAUW UNIVERSITY

DePauw University, founded in 1837, is recognized as a selective, high-quality, national liberal arts university by other institutions of higher education and the nation's business and professional communities. Its College of Liberal Arts and School of Music enjoy an outstanding national reputation. DePauw's distinguished alumni include former U.S. Vice President Dan Quayle, U.S. Representative Lee Hamilton, civil rights leader Vernon Jordan, Nobel Prize-winning scientist Ferid Murad, the composer-lyricist team of Gretchen Cryer and Nancy Ford Charles, best-selling author John Jakes, former astronaut Joseph P. Allen, author and Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist James B. Stewart, ESPN founder William Rasmussen, and many other leaders in business, the professions, public service, and the arts.

DePauw provides its 2,350 undergraduate students with a rigorous academic environment and a student-to-faculty ratio of 10-to-1. Students gain leadership experience through a wide range of extracurricular opportunities in small, self-governing living units, student-run organizations, intercollegiate athletics, numerous productions and ensembles in the performing arts, and other organizations.

The University sponsors 23 varsity sports (12 for women and 11 for men) and is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's Division III. DePauw's athletic teams compete in the North Coast Athletic Conference which also includes Allegheny College (Pa.), Denison University (Ohio), DePauw University, Hiram College (Ohio), Kenyon College (Ohio), Oberlin College (Ohio), Ohio Wesleyan University (Ohio), Wabash College (Ind.), Wittenberg University (Ohio), The College of Wooster (Ohio).

TIGER TENNIS CAMP at DePauw University

TENNIS INSTRUCTION AND COMPETITION FOR BOYS AND GIRLS AGE 9-19

JUNE 11-16, 2012

Registration June 11 from 12-2 p.m.
First hitting session begins at 2:30 p.m.
End-of-camp ceremony June 16 at 1 p.m.

Director: Scott Riggle

ENROLLMENT IS LIMITED – APPLY EARLY

DePauw University
Greencastle, Indiana

ABOUT THE CAMP

- Head coach Scott Riggle is involved in every instructional session and competition.
- Our staff is comprised of the coaches and players from DePauw's nationally-ranked men's and women's teams as well as other highly qualified coaches from the area.
- The student/instructor ratio is 4:1.
- Our instructors are trained to impart sound fundamentals and tactics, teach advanced techniques and strategy, and emphasize hard work, concentration, and sportsmanship in a positive environment that allows students to learn and improve while having fun.
- Students will compete in a variety of settings, including events such as individual matches, team matches within the camp, and team matches against other area programs.
- Individualized instruction will be available to all students.
- University dietitians plan all meals in a food court style service that caters to a variety of appetites.
- Dormitories are continuously supervised.
- On Saturday we will conduct an end-of-camp ceremony with awards and certificates presented. Parents are encouraged to attend.
- Each student will receive a DePauw University tennis camp t-shirt.
- Each student will receive an individualized evaluation and workout sheet to take home that includes advice, goals, and other thoughts tailored to the student.

ANDREW GREGORY, Assistant Coach

Andrew Gregory begins his second season as assistant tennis coach at DePauw and his first summer as co-director of the Tiger Tennis Camp. Coach Gregory was a member of the NCCAA (National Christian Collegiate Athletic Association) National Championship tennis team at Olivet Nazarene University, where he played both tennis and basketball. In each of his four years, both the tennis and the basketball teams earned NAIA national rankings. He was a member of the IHSAA final four Terre Haute North High School tennis team, where he set a school record for most doubles victories. Coach Gregory also has worked for 10 years as an instructor and site director with the Terre Haute Junior Tennis Association and has been a teaching professional at the Wabash Valley Tennis Club. He has a B.S. degree in sports management from Olivet Nazarene University and is currently completing a Master's degree through Ball State University.

SAMPLE DAY

7:30 a.m.	Breakfast
8:15-8:30 a.m.	Warm-up and stretch
8:30-11:15 a.m.	Instructional drills
11:45 a.m.	Lunch
12:30-1:30 p.m.	Free time
1:30-4:15 p.m.	Instructional competition
5:30 p.m.	Dinner
6:30-10 p.m.	Additional hitting and individual instruction available; other activities, such as basketball, racquetball, swimming, weightlifting, and soccer available
10 p.m.	In rooms
11 p.m.	Lights out

COST

Total cost per overnight participant:.....$475
Total cost per day camp participant:.....$375
Deposit due with application:.....$100
(refundable if camp is filled)
Balance due:..... June 4
Note: All meals for overnight participants are included in the cost. Lunch is included in the cost for day campers.

FACILITIES

Instruction will be conducted at DePauw's outstanding tennis complex, comprised of nine outdoor hard courts, three of which are lighted, and six indoor hard courts. DePauw's other athletic facilities, including the supervised swimming pool, will also be available to all campers.

WHAT TO BRING

- Sheets and/or sleeping bag
- Pillow
- Toiletries and other personal items, including soap, towels, and washcloths
- Swimsuit
- Sunscreen
- Hat
- Racket(s)
- Alarm clock

TIGER TENNIS CAMP AT DEPAUW UNIVERSITY APPLICATION

(Duplicate as needed)

Name _____ Age _____ Male Female
 Overnight Day camp Beginner Intermediate Advanced S M L XL
Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____
Home phone _____ Work phone _____
E-mail address _____ School name _____
I hereby authorize the directors and employees of the Tiger Tennis Camp at DePauw University to act for me according to their best judgment in any emergency requiring medical attention, and I hereby waive and release the school from any and all liability for injuries and illness while at the school. I will be responsible for any medical and other charges in connection with my son's or daughter's attendance at the camp.
Parent or guardian's signature _____ insurance company.
My child is covered by _____
Roommate preference (leave blank if none) _____
Make check payable to Tiger Tennis Camp at DePauw University and mail application with deposit to: DePauw University, ATTN: Scott Riggle, 100 W. Hanna St., P.O. Box 37, Greencastle, IN 46135.