

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RICHARD E. PEELER ART CENTER
UPCOMING EXHIBITION

2006 FACULTY EXHIBITION

MARCH 15 – APRIL 16, 2006

Forrest Solis, Humpty-Dumpty, 2006, oil on canvas, 44" x 32", courtesy of the artist

Greencastle, IN, March 2006 — DePauw University's 2006 Faculty Exhibition highlights the work of DePauw University's studio art faculty. From ceramic vessels to figurative painting to conceptual sculpture, a wide range of media and ideas will be on display.

Participating faculty includes:

- David Herrold (Ceramics)
- Robert Kingsley (Painting/Drawing)
- Lori Miles (Sculpture)

-- more --

Faculty Exhibition -- Page Two

- Susan Mullally (Photography)
- Forrest Solis (Painting/Drawing)

DePauw's faculty has exhibited nationally and internationally in such venues as the WWW Gallery, Stockholm, Sweden; The Dairy Barn, Athens, OH; Lankershim Art Gallery, North Hollywood, CA; Bemis Center for Contemporary Arts, Omaha, NB; Smithsonian Institution, Washington, DC; Erickson/Elins Gallery, San Francisco, CA; and Presso Lo Studio, Italy.

This exhibition may be visited through April 16, 2006, and is free and open to the public.

SPECIAL EVENTS:

Wednesday, March 15, 2006, 4 – 6 pm
Opening reception with talks by the artists
Visual Arts Gallery

Please call 765.658.4336 for more information

###

The galleries at the Richard E. Peeler Art Center are open Monday-Friday 9 a.m.-4 p.m.; Saturday 10 a.m.-4 p.m.; and Sunday 1-5 p.m. Please call the gallery information line at 765.658.4822 or visit our website at <http://www.depauw.edu/galleries> for more information about special events associated with this exhibition.

For more information please contact:

Christopher Lynn, Curatorial Assistant
Richard E. Peeler Art Center
DePauw University
Greencastle, IN 46135
765-658-4884
clynn@depauw.edu