The DePauw University Publications collection includes all student and staff produced products from the first catalog in 1839 and newspaper in 1841 to the present. Publications of long continuous existence and those consisting of only a single issue are included. Their titles, volume and issue numbers and dates, when known, location in ASC and microfilm number when available are also listed. The collection is composed of news and literary magazines, newspapers, journals and newsletters. In addition, the collection includes all official DePauw-produced publications such as directories, catalogs and handbooks.
