

Obituaries

Lois Zimmerman Wilcox '25, Feb. 18, 2004, of Asheville, N.C., at the age of 100. She was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She was an annual member of the Washington C. DePauw Society. She was a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her husband, Richard M. Wilcox '25. Her survivors include two daughters, Jean Wilcox Morris '51 and Patricia Wilcox Oliver '54; a son, John T. Wilcox '59; and a daughter-in-law, Margot Guessford Wilcox '62.

Opal Cole Eagle '26, Feb. 19, 2004, of Greencastle, Ind., at the age of 100. She served as children's librarian and coordinator of young adult services for the St. Louis Library for 29 years as well as an associate professor of library science at Washington University Evening College in St. Louis. She was preceded in death by her husband and a sister, Pearl V. Cole '29.

Elouise Wade Jones '26, April 5, 2004, of Carmel, Ind., at the age of 99. She was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She was secretary for the Class of 1926. Before becoming a homemaker, she handled publications for Culver (Ind.) Military Academy and ran the Hour of Charm radio program for Marshall Field & Company in Chicago. She was preceded in death by her husband, Ralph E. Jones '25; a brother, Paul R. Wade '29; and a sister, Elizabeth "Betty" Wade Pettis '24.

William R. Caskey '27, May 28, 2004, of Carmel, Ind., at the age of 97. He was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. He often told his "straight A" story. As a DePauw junior, he was awarded The Indianapolis Star agency for Greencastle, which demanded he have a car on campus. So he struck a deal with his Bible professor, Walter E. Bundy, who needed a daily ride to a fishing pond. He would drive his professor to the pond if the professor would approve a campus car pass for him. Bill said, "While I don't recall seeing any fish for all of his effort, at least I had 30 hours of straight A's for mine." He was in the real estate and insurance business and was the Clay (Ind.) Township assessor for 12 years. His survivors include his wife; and a son, William B. Caskey '78.

Obituaries in DePauw Magazine include name of the deceased, class year, fraternity/sorority/living unit, occupation and DePauw-related activities and relatives.

When reporting deaths, please include as much information as possible. Newspaper obituaries are very helpful.

Information should be sent to Alumni Records, DePauw University, Charter House, 300 E. Seminary Street, P.O. Box 37, Greencastle, IN 46135-0037. You may also FAX us the information at (765) 658-4172 or e-mail to ddowning@depauw.edu.

Obituaries in DePauw Magazine do not include memorial gifts.

Willia Batt Finch '28, Dec. 21, 2003, in Chelsea, Mich., at the age of 99. She was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. She was a missionary in New Mexico until her marriage and then a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her husband, L. LaVerne Finch '27.

Dorothy Gantz Emison '28, Jan. 6, 2004, of Wilmington, N.C., at the age of 97. She was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She was a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her father, Virgil M. Gantz, Class of 1895; her mother, Nettie Coble Gantz, Class of 1896; and her husband, Robert S. Emison '28. Her survivors include two daughters, Mary Emison Davis '53, and Anne Emison Harmon '54; granddaughter, Julia Harmon Chavez '88; grandson, Robert C. Davis '79; son-in-law, Phillip C. Davis '53; brother-in-law, James H. Emison '47; a niece, Beth Emison Peterson '40; and nephews, John C. Emison Jr. '43, James W. Emison '71, and David L. Emison '73.

Marian Vickery Feigel '28, Dec. 27, 2003, of Evansville, Ind. She was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta. She was a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her husband; a sister, Florence E. Vickery '26; and an aunt, Martha E. Vickery, class of 1887. Her survivors include two daughters, Barbara Feigel Rice '53, and Elizabeth Feigel Gillum '60; and a son-in-law, Ronald L. Gillum '60.

Virginia Grishaw King '30, Jan. 14, 2004, of Indianapolis, at the age of 94. She was a member of Alpha Phi sorority. She was a homemaker and later corporate secretary of Citizen Ship Radio Corporation for 17 years, followed by 13 years as a member of the Indianapolis Museum of Art staff, retiring in 1983. She was preceded in death by her husband Marjorie Lovell Roulston '30, Jan. 22, 2004, of Salem, N.H., at the age of 96, after a brief illness. She was a member of Alpha Phi sorority. She was director of the Lincoln Settlement House in Boston until her marriage and then became a homemaker. Later she served as director of the Lawrence (N.H.) YMCA and was elected to the New Hampshire legislature in 1958. Her survivors include her husband.

Esteleen McCracken Street '31, Dec. 29, 2003, in Arlington Heights, Ill., at the age of 94. She was an English teacher at Orleans High School in Orleans, Ind., and a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her husband.

Ethel Page Knott '30, Dec. 12, 2001, in San Diego, at the age of 95. She was a homemaker. She was a founding member of the San Diego Symphony. She was preceded in death by her husband and a sister, Margaret Page '33.

Louise Scott Garman '32, Jan. 19, 2004, of San Diego, at the age of 93. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She was a lifetime member of the Washington C. DePauw Society. She was a teacher at Greentown (Ind.) High School from 1933-38; at Kokomo High School from 1939-42; and in Fullerton and Whittier, Calif., from 1943 until her retirement. She was preceded in death by her father, Everett G. Scott, Class of 1887, and a brother, George W. Scott '25. Her survivors include her husband.

Charles V. Strain '32, Dec. 7, 2003, of Falls Church, Va., at the age of 93, of renal failure. He was a Rector Scholar. He was a retired Navy Department nuclear physicist. He was preceded in death by his wife, Martha Vaughan Strain '33; a daughter, Judith Strain Barton '41; a brother, William H. Strain '23; and two sisters, Mary Strain '16 and Jennie Strain Tudor '21. His survivors include a daughter, Linda Strain Hodge '43.

Jewel W. Wright '32, Feb. 17, 2004, of Greencastle, Ind., at the age of 93. She was a partner in the Washington C. DePauw Society. She taught English at Bainbridge (Ind.) High School for five years and later became the library coordinator in the Los Angeles Unified School District, retiring in 1976.

Martha Lyons Renfrew '33, April 23, 2004, in Attica, Ind. She was a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her husband.

Keith J. BonDurant '33, Oct. 1, 2003, of South Bend, Ind., at the age of 92. He was a member of the Men's Hall Association and a Rector Scholar. He retired as plant controller from Oliver Corporation in 1973 after 25 years of service. He was preceded in death by his wife. His survivors include a son, Bruce J. BonDurant '65, and a daughter, Susan BonDurant Arnold '62.

John C. Hargrave '33, Nov. 20, 2004, of LaPorte, Ind., at the age of 91. He was cofounder of the general insurance firm, Hargrave, Hargrave & Boston in LaPorte, Ind. He was an active community volunteer. He was preceded in death by his wife.

Dr. J. Lawrence Sims '33, Feb. 23, 2004, of Omaha, Neb., at the age of 91. He was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He was a retired otolaryngologist after having practiced medicine in Indianapolis for 33 years. His survivors include his wife and two sons, James L. Sims Jr. '62 and Joseph A. Sims '65.

S. Kenneth Boone '34, May 29, 2004, of Sheridan, Ind., at the age of 92. He was a member of the Men's Hall Association and a Rector Scholar. He was a retired farmer. He was preceded in death by his wife and a brother, Paul Boone '27. His survivors include a grandson, Nathan M. Boone '91.

Ann Gough Crimmel Kelly '34, Jan. 3, 2004, in Fort Wayne, Ind., at the age of 91. She was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She was a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her first and second husbands.

Charles W. Kepner '34, Sept. 9, 2003, in Marin County, Calif., at the age of 91. He was a member of the Men's Hall Association and a Rector Scholar. He was an annual member of the Washington C. DePauw Society. He retired in 1994 as controller and certified public accountant for Foremost McKesson Company, Inc. He was preceded in death by his wife. His survivors include a son, C. Richard Kepner '65.

Glenn A. Nesty '34, April 21, 2004, in Bayside, Calif., at the age of 92. He was a Rector Scholar and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He was a chemist and vice president of Allied Chemical Corporation in Morristown, N.J. In 1969 he became vice president of research for the International Paper Company, retiring in 1985. He was responsible for numerous research discoveries, patents and innovations, and received numerous honors from the chemical and paper industries. He was preceded in death by his wife.

Norman F. Tower '34, Jan. 3, 2004, of Springfield, Mass., at the age of 90. He was a member of Delta Chi fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He retired as manager of the claims department of the Insurance Company of North America in 1978 after 40 years of service. He was preceded in death by his wife.

John M. Chesterfield '35, Jan. 22, 2004, of Indianapolis, at the age of 91. He was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He retired as chief executive officer of the Aluminum Finishing company in 1989. He was preceded in death by his wife. His survivors include a son, John L. Chesterfield '64, and a daughter, Susan Chesterfield Jackson '68.

James M. Childs '35, March 31, 2004, of Pickerington, Ohio, at the age of 93. He was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. He was a department chief for Western Electric Company in New York City, retiring in 1980.

William E. Franklin '35, Jan. 30, 2004, in Venice, Fla., at the age of 91. He was a Rector Scholar. He was a high school teacher, school principal and superintendent in Indiana schools from 1935-53. He was an assistant research director for the Indiana State Teachers Association from 1953-58 and a real estate broker from 1958-82. His survivors include his wife.

Nell Hunter Smith '35, Dec. 8, 2003, of Anacortes, Wash. She was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. She was a high school Latin and English teacher and retired in 1980. She was preceded in death by her husband, V. Maurice Smith '36. Her survivors include a sister-in-law, Marjorie Smith Ross '37.

Wesley J. Lyda '35, June 6, 2003, of Terre Haute, Ind., at the age of 89. He was a Rector Scholar. He was a professor of secondary education in the Department of Education and founder of the African-American Studies program at Indiana State University, retiring as a professor emeritus. He was honored by DePauw in 1973 with an alumni citation and in 1987 with an honorary degree. His survivors include his wife.

Ernest A. Pinson '35, Dec. 10, 2003, in San Diego, at the age of 90. He was a Rector Scholar. He was an aero-medical research scientist and a military academic leader. His military career included becoming director of geophysics research at the Air Force Cambridge Research Laboratories from 1959-63. In 1963 he became commandant of the Air Force Institute of Technology at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, retiring in 1973. He was honored by DePauw with an alumni citation in 1967 and an honorary degree in 1969. His survivors include his wife.

Beryl B. Spicer '35, Feb. 6, 2004, of Monticello, Ind., at the age of 90. He was a member of the Men's Hall Association and a Rector Scholar. He owned and operated Spicer Insurance Company in Sidell, Ill., from 1949 until his retirement in 1978. He was a member of DePauw 1933 unbeaten, untied and unscored upon DePauw football team. He was inducted into DePauw's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995. He was preceded in death by his first wife. His survivors include his wife.

Elizabeth Burns Spencer '36, Dec. 16, 2003, in Kingwood, Texas, at the age of 88. She was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She was a social worker for the state of Michigan for many years. Her survivors include her husband and a son, Jack B. Spencer '67.

H. Vail Deale '36, Feb. 28, 2004, of Beloit, Wis., at the age of 88. He was a member of Men's Hall Association. He retired after 27 years as director of libraries for Beloit College. He wrote numerous articles for library publications. He was preceded in death by his wife and a sister, Dorothy Deale Henderson '39.

C. Norman Frees '36, May 19, 2004, of Houston, at the age of 89. He was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He was a Washington C. DePauw Society partner. He was a past trustee for DePauw. He began his career working for the United States Securities and Exchange Commission while earning a law degree from Fordham University. In 1941 he went to Mexico with the United States State Department and became a sales representative for steel mills in 1944. While in Mexico, he and his brother developed the Santa Anita Golf and Country Club. In 1979 he founded Petrotex in Houston, retiring in 1990. He received an honorary degree from DePauw in 1981. In 1982 he was the recipient of DePauw's highest alumni honor, the Old Gold Goblet. He was inducted into DePauw's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995. His survivors include his wife and a daughter, Carole Frees Watkins '73.

John "Jack" C. Gibson '36, Feb. 24, 2004, of Flat Rock, N.C., at the age of 90, after a long illness. He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He was a Rector Scholar. He retired in 1974 after 38 years of service from General Electric. His survivors include his wife, and two sons, Robert H. Gibson '64 and Paul C. Gibson '71.

Wisner P. Kinne '36, Oct. 6, 2003, in Ovid, N.Y., at the age of 89. He was member of Delta Upsilon fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He was an assistant professor of English at Tufts College and later returned to his family's farm in Ovid in the mid-1950s and where he committed to improving the infrastructure of Seneca County. He was an author and contributed articles to the Encyclopedia Britannica and Colliers Encyclopedia. He was preceded in death by his wife.

Russell J. Quick '36, May 1, 2004, of Indianapolis, at the age of 89. He was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. He had been vice president of marketing for Indiana Lumbermen's Mutual Insurance Company and retired as corporate secretary. He was preceded in death by his wife.

Dr. Joseph W. Freeman '37, Jan. 12, 2004, in Jenkins Township, Pa. He was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He was a self-employed anesthesiologist in Denver, retiring in 1985. His survivors include his wife.

Harry P. Homan '37, Nov. 2, 2003, of Glenview, Ill., at the age of 89. He was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. He was an insurance investigator for Underwriters Reports, Inc., retiring as a vice president. His survivors include his wife, Marjorie Coolsen Homan '39, and a daughter, Carol A. Homan '79.

Elizabeth Hopkins Nibbelink '37, Jan. 4, 2004, of Brockport, N.Y., at the age of 88. She was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She was a retired teacher for Early American Decoration Inc.

Gilbert R. Martin '38, Oct. 19, 2003, of Oakwood, Ohio, at the age of 88. He was a member of the Men's Hall Association. He was the director of the Oakwood YMCA and an elementary school teacher for 17 years. He was preceded in death by his wife, Marjorie Goodwin Martin '37. His survivors include a daughter, Catherine Martin McCrummen '71.

John "Jack" P. Grady '38, Jan. 22, 2004, of Lakeland, Fla., at the age of 87. He was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He was a fellow of the Washington C. DePauw Society. He received an honorary Doctor of Humanities degree from DePauw in 1990. He was founder of Citrus Central Inc. of Apopka, Fla., and Juice Bowl Products of Lakeland, Fla. He was founder and board member of the Employee Stock Ownership Plan Association of America and active in legislative programs. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Alice Scott Martin '38. He is survived by his second wife and a son, John M. Grady '68.

Clint V. Cox '38, March 25, 2004, of Tulsa, Okla., at the age of 85. He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He was a lifetime and annual member of the Washington C. DePauw Society. He was the owner and president of Warehouse Market, which operated 15 stores throughout Oklahoma. He was preceded in death by his wife and a sister, Betty Cox Stewart '33. He was survived by his grandson, Vincent B. Browne '94.

John G. Life '39, Feb. 24, 2004, of Evansville, Ind., at the age of 87. He was a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He began his career as a lawyer in Kokomo, Ind. In 1953, he worked for the Indianapolis Life Insurance Company in the mortgage loan department, retiring as secretary and treasurer in 1981. He was preceded in death by his wife, Dorothy Brown Life '44, on Jan. 23, 2004. His survivors include a sister, Joan Life Edwards '44.

L. Earl Lewis Jr. '40, March 3, 2004, of McLean, Va., at the age of 86. He was a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He was employed by the United States Department of Labor in the Bureau of Labor Statistics for 34 years, retiring in 1984 as assistant deputy commissioner for wages. He was preceded in death by his father, L. Earl Lewis Sr. '26. His survivors include his wife.

Luella McWhirter Martin '40, Dec. 10, 2003, Bloomington, Ind. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She was a lifetime and annual member of the Washington C. DePauw Society. She was a homemaker and a community volunteer. She was preceded in death by her father, Felix M. McWhirter '09; and a brother, Felix T. McWhirter '38. Her survivors include her husband and a sister-in-law, Margaret Jennings McWhirter '37.

Dr. Robert J. Rohn '40, Nov. 19, 2003, of Indianapolis, at the age of 85. He was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He was named an assistant professor of internal medicine at Indiana University School of Medicine in Indianapolis in 1950, where he founded and directed the division of adult hematology-oncology of the internal medicine department. He retired as a distinguished emeritus professor of medicine in 1985. His survivors include his wife, Ann Smith Rohn '40.

Dr. Robert E. Jenkins '41, Dec. 25, 2003, of Indianapolis, at the age of 83. He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He was a retired dermatologist. He was founder of the dermatology department at Indiana University School of Medicine. He was preceded in death by his brother, Charles W. Jenkins '37. His survivors include his wife and a daughter, Nancy Jenkins Copeland '50.

Rev. Wesley W. Matzigkeit '41, Dec. 22, 2003, of Evansville, Ind., at the age of 84. He was a Rector Scholar. He was a minister and served churches in Mexico City; West Barrington, R.I.; and Evansville, Ind. He served 21 years as minister of the Salem United Methodist Church in Evansville, retiring in 1990. His survivors include his wife, and two sons, Matthew L. Patterson '81 and John Paul Matzigkeit '89.

Alice Longley Roberts '42, Jan. 14, 2004, of Palo Alto, Calif., at the age of 83, after a long battle with Parkinson's Disease. She was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She was a lifetime member of the Washington C. DePauw Society. She was a homemaker and community volunteer. Her survivors include her husband, Frank H. Roberts '41.

Rev. Matt Mees '42, Nov. 22, 2003, of East Harwich, Mass., at the age of 85. He was a member of the Men's Hall Association. He was a retired United Methodist minister and served churches in southern New England, retiring in 1983. After retirement, he served as pastor of visitation at the First Congregational Church in Chatham, Mass., from 1984-99. He was preceded in death by his wife.

Rose Raines Allen '42, Jan. 11, 2004, of Franklin, Ind., at the age of 83. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She was a homemaker and community volunteer. Her survivors include her husband, Robert K. Allen '42.

Jean Strickland Savage '42, May 8, 2003, of Mason City, Iowa, at the age of 82, from an inoperable brain tumor. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and Phi Beta Kappa. She was a freelance book editor and retired as editor of the Heritage Foundation in Washington, D.C., in 1991. Her survivors include her partner.

Charles R. Hicks '43, April 9, 2004, of Morristown, Tenn., at the age of 82. He was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. His survivors include his wife.

Jane Schlosser Cox '43, March 2, 2004, of Sacramento, Calif. She was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She was a homemaker and a community volunteer. Her survivors include her husband, John R. Cox '43.

Dorothy Brown Life '44, Jan. 23, 2004, Evansville, Ind., at the age of 81. She was a member of Pi Beta Phi. She was an accomplished musician, a homemaker, and later worked in publishing with Research and Review Service, Inc. She was followed in death by her husband, John G. Life '39, on Feb. 24, 2004.

M. Dick Minnick '44, Jan. 1, 2003, of Clarendon Hills, Ill., at the age of 80. He was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He retired as general manager of the fashion merchandising center of Sears, Roebuck & Company in Chicago after 47 years. He was preceded in death by his father, Ralph O. Minnick '17. His survivors include his wife, Frances Porter Minnick '43.

Dr. James W. Wainright '44, Nov. 9, 2003, in Deer Isle, Maine, at the age of 81. He was a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He practiced internal medicine in Hudson, N.Y., and East Lansing, Mich. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Caroline Thompson Wainright '41, and brothers-in-law, Alan C. Thompson '43 and William H. Clark '48. His survivors include his wife; a sister, Lucia Wainright Clark '46; and a brother, Nathan C. Wainright '50.

Rev. Stanley M. Smith '45, Nov. 6, 2003, of Los Angeles, at the age of 80, following a long illness. He was a member of the Men's Hall Association. He was a minister and served churches in Arizona and California, retiring in 1988. His survivors include his wife.

Lucy Longden Webb '45, Dec. 17, 2003, of Webster Groves, Mo. She was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She was a retired florist. She was a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her father, Grafton J. Longden '13; her mother, Hazel Day Longden '16; and her brother, Grafton J. Longden Jr. '41. Her survivors include her husband, John R. Webb '47; a son, Howard M. Webb '76; a daughter, Rebecca Webb Mueller '71; a sister, Rebecca Longden Oliver '48; and two nieces, Patricia Longden Watkins '70 and Mildred Longden Meehan '69.

Jean Linde Wagner '46, May 19, 2004, of Durham, N.C., at the age of 79. She was a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert H. Wagner '43.

Martha Treat McCullough '46, Jan. 15, 2004, of Venice, Fla., at the age of 79. She was a homemaker. Survivors include her husband.

H. David Maloney '48, Nov. 21, 2003, of Greencastle, Ind., at the age of 81. He was a member of the Men's Hall Association and a Rector Scholar. He was a DePauw professor of economics from 1949-58. He was preceded in death by his wife.

James L. Green '49, March 13, 2004, of Noblesville, Ind., at the age of 80. He was a member of Phi Delta Gamma fraternity. He was an annual member of the Washington C. DePauw Society. He retired from Firestone Industrial Products Company after 36 years of service. His survivors include his wife, Phyllis Whitcomb Green '46.

John M. Gwinn '49, April 8, 2004, of Fishers, Ind., at the age of 77. He was a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He began his business career in farming, then was employed with Thompson-Hayward Chemical Company, and later founded the American Industrial Disposal Company in Bloomington, Ind., followed by employment in various sales positions. He was preceded in death by his father, Fred H. Gwinn '13; his mother, Madeleine Eppert Gwinn '13; and sister, Jane Gwinn Eller '38. His survivors include his wife.

S. Robert Mohler '49, March 18, 2004, of Jacksonville, Fla., at the age of 78. He was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. He was a past member of the DePauw Alumni Association Board of Directors. He retired as vice president of Mellon Bank in Pittsburgh in 1985. His survivors include his wife, Louise Martin Mohler '48; a son, Mark R. Mohler '79; and a sister, Jane Mohler Carpenter '41.

Frederick E. Wiedman '49, Dec. 18, 2003, of Indianapolis, at the age of 76. He was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. He was a sports promotion staff member for the Indiana Pacers and later was employed by MZD Advertising. He was preceded in death by his father, G. Fred Wiedman '16. His survivors include his wife, Willene Heaps Wiedman '49.

Ann Weingartner Armstrong '49, April 23, 2004, of Byron, Ill., at the age of 77. She was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. She was a homemaker. Her survivors include her husband, James W. Armstrong '50; a brother, J. Phillip Weingartner '43; a sister-in-law, Nancy Myers Weingartner '45; a brother-in-law, John D. Armstrong '40; and a sister-in-law, Elizabeth Horine Armstrong '41.

Patricia Becker Colborne '50, April 2, 2004, of Cincinnati, at the age of 75. She was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She was the owner of Colborne Consulting. Her survivors include a daughter, Gwendolyn Colborne Curliss '75.

Rev. Calvin R. Knapp '50, March 13, 2004, of Nashville, Tenn., at the age of 78. He was member of the Men's Hall Association. He was ordained a United Methodist minister and became a Unitarian Universalist Church minister for Indiana and Illinois congregations, retiring in 1998. His survivors include his wife.

D. Thomas Van Etten '50, Oct. 5, 2003, of Yorba Linda, Calif. He was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. He retired from General Dynamics in Fullerton, Calif. His survivors include his wife, Joyce Mayer Glenn '50.

Virginia Arnold Hebel '51, Jan. 1, 2004, of Cupertino, Calif., at the age of 73, after a long battle with lung cancer. She was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, a member of Phi Beta Kappa and a Rector Scholar. She was a lifelong church organist and served as choral accompanist at Los Altos (Calif.) High School for 20 years. She served two years as fulltime organist at First United Methodist Church of Palo Alto, Calif., and as substitute organist at numerous churches. She was preceded in death by her father, W. Clarke Arnold '20, DePauw professor of mathematics; and her mother, Ruth Newby Arnold '25. Her survivors include her husband, L. Charles Hebel Jr. '52, and her brother, Paul C. Arnold '57.

Alice Chandler Gockley '51, Jan. 6, 2004, of Flint, Mich. She was a member of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She was a librarian and teacher of English in Marion, Ind. Her survivors include her husband.

N. Jean Loveland '51, Jan. 8, 2004, of Paris, Ill., at the age of 74. She was a retired professor and had taught at Northwest Missouri University, Texas Woman's University, Southern Illinois University and the University of Iowa. She was director of recreation for the cities of Bennington, Vt., and Pittsfield, Mass. She was preceded in death by her father, Clarence H. Loveland '25, and her mother, Bonnie Bell Loveland '26.

Richard C. Paulin '51, Jan. 14, 2004, of Eugene, Ore., at the age of 75, of complications from surgery. He was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He was director of the University of Oregon Museum of Art for 20 years.

Jack W. Payne '52, Jan. 28, 2004, of Sarasota, Fla., at the age of 73, of cancer. He was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. He was an executive for more than 45 years, working for Parke Davis and Company, Johnson & Johnson, Baxter International, RP Scherer Corporation and several of his own companies. He was most recently chief executive officer of ProBed Medical Technologies Inc. in Vancouver, British Columbia. His survivors include his wife and a daughter, Elizabeth "Betsy" Payne '80.

Sandra Spangler Gannett '53, March 3, 2004, of St. Charles, Ill., at the age of 72, from cancer. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She was a homemaker and retired as codirector of Court Appointed Special Advocates in Kane County (Ill.). She was a community volunteer for the arts. She was preceded in death by a nephew, Thomas F. Triebel '76. Her survivors include her husband; a sister, Jeannine Spangler Triebel '51; a brother-in-law, Russell F. Triebel '51; and a niece, Deborah Triebel Loyd '78.

James A. Chism '55, April 16, 2004, of Nashville, Ind., at the age of 71. He was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. He was a Washington C. DePauw Society lifetime member. He was a past member of the DePauw Board of Visitors and the DePauw Alumni Association Board of Directors. He was a retired financial officer for Miles Inc. and Bayer Corporation in Elkhart, Ind. He was preceded in death by his mother, Arema Chadwick Chism Fowler '22.

Roger S. Getty '55, March 28, 2004, Ephrata, Pa., at the age of 70. He was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He was an agent for State Farm Insurance Company for 38 years, retiring in 1996. His survivors include his wife.

Andrew S. Adsit '56, Dec. 20, 2003, of Northbrook, Ill., at the age of 69, of heart disease. He was a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He was an annual member of the Washington C. DePauw Society. He was a real estate lawyer and partner in the family law firm of Kahn, Adsit and Arnstein in Chicago. He was preceded in death by his father, Harold C. Adsit '20. His survivors include his wife; a son, Robert S. Adsit '88; a daughter, Andrea Adsit Edwards '85; and a son-in-law, R. David Edwards '84.

Ann Dicks West '56, April 9, 2004, of North Canton, Ohio, at the age of 70. She was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She was a homemaker. Her survivors include her husband.

Susan Stewart Rice Mannon '56, Feb. 16, 2004, of Greencastle, at the age of 70. She was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She held various positions, including career counselor with the CETA Program and co-op coordinator with the Career Center at Indiana State University. From 1989-94, she was the director of Putnam County (Ind.) Family Support Services. She was preceded in death by her mother, Freydis Cox Stewart '28, and a sister, Elizabeth G. Stewart '62. Her survivors include her husband; and a son, Raymond F. Rice '94.

Elizabeth Nickols Long '58, January 2004, in Las Vegas, at the age of 62. She taught foreign languages at Heidelberg College in Tiffin, Ohio; North Park College in Chicago; and Ball State University in Muncie, Ind. Her career also included working in corporate sales at Pacific Telephone Company in San Francisco and teaching English as a second language in Mexico.

Dr. James T. Roberts '59, Dec. 25, 2003, of Needham, Mass., at the age of 66. He was a Harvard Medical School assistant professor of anesthesia at Massachusetts General Hospital. His survivors include his wife.

Edward C. Dom '60, Feb. 25, 2004, of Tucson, Ariz., at the age of 66, of a heart attack. He was a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He was a retired senior consultant for Figgie Systems Management Group. His survivors include his wife, Madge Doula Dom '61.

Christine Moffett Brain '61, April 27, 2004, in Branford, Ontario, at the age of 65, from breast cancer. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She was a book editor and a homemaker.

She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Vera Cooper Beyer '06; her father, Rexford W. Moffett '32; and her mother, Mary Beyer Moffett '32. Her survivors include her husband; her daughter, Danielle E.C. Brain '93; and her brother, Charles R. Moffett '69.

Donald E. Kline '64, May 7, 2004, of Cincinnati, at the age of 62, from a brain tumor. He was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. He was a third-generation owner of Gardner Publications Inc. and most recently was chairman of the board. His survivors include his wife; a brother, Richard G. Kline '63; a niece, Melissa Kline Skavlem '88; and a nephew, Richard G. Kline '91.

Roy L. Horton '65, April 19, 2004, of Morristown, N.J., at the age of 60. He was a Rector Scholar. He served as organist at St. Mary's Abbey at the Delbarton School, Morris Township, N. J., since 1996. He was the organist and music director at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Mendham, N.J., since 1975. He was head of the music department at Delbarton School, conductor of the Schola Cantorum and conductor and coordinator for the Abbey Orchestra and wind ensemble for more than 30 years. His survivors include his wife.

Carol A. Farmer '66, June 19, of Landudec, France, at the age of 59, while visiting in Delray Beach, Fla. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta and served on the Board of Visitors. She was president of Carol Farmer Associates, a consulting firm for retail and other industries. She was a sought-after speaker in the retail industry. Her survivors include her father and stepmother.

Jerry L. Stevens '66, Aug. 27, 2000, of Lexington, Ky., at the age of 56, of pancreatic cancer. He was instrumental in the establishment of the University of Kentucky's Office of Minority Affairs. His survivors include his wife.

Myrtle Landes Logan Boyd '67, April 4, 2004, of Brazil, Ind., at the age of 98. She was an elementary school teacher at Reelsville (Ind.) Elementary School for 47 years, retiring in 1973. The Reelsville school library was dedicated and named in her honor in 1971. She was preceded in death by her first and second husbands.

Margaret Cicero Culich '69, April 3, 2004, of Naugatuck, Conn., at the age of 56. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She was an English teacher at Naugatuck High School. Her survivors include her husband.

Terry L. Lester '71, Nov. 28, 2003, of New York City, at the age of 53. He was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. He was a television actor and originated the role of Jack in The Young and Restless in 1980, playing the part until 1989. He received four consecutive Emmy nominations for outstanding lead actor from 1984-87. He later appeared in television shows As The World Turns and Santa Barbara.

David Z. Pogany '71, Dec. 16, 2003, of Minneapolis, at the age of 54. He was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. He was the energy consultant and owner of Sun One Ltd., and later an energy analyst for Sustainable Resources Center in Minneapolis. He was the author of articles on solar energy and a founding member of the Minneapolis Solar Industries Guild. His survivors include his wife.

Paul C. Van Booven '73, Jan. 10, 2004, of Lexington, Ky., at the age of 53, after a four-year battle with cancer. He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity and a Rector Scholar. He was a past member of the DePauw Alumni Association Board of Directors. He served as assistant dean and associate dean of the University of Kentucky School of Law from 1976-89. He had worked in the University's legal counsel's office since 1989 and became general counsel in 2002. His survivors include his partner.

Ruth Clark Kellogg '75, May 7, 2004, of Indianola, Iowa, at the age of 62, of multiple myeloma. She earned her master's of arts in teaching from DePauw. She retired as an elementary school teacher from the Indianola community school system in 1989. From 1991-94 she supervised student teachers in language arts and art at Drake University in Des Moines as well as teaching writing and business English courses at the Des Moines Area Community College. Her survivors include her husband, John A. Kellogg '62.

David C. Hohlfelder '82, May 1, 2004, of Cicero, Ind., at the age of 43. He was a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He worked in food brokerage and managed Claudin Welding Supply Company in Champaign, Ill. Later, he was a sales representative for Indiana Oxygen in Indianapolis. His survivors include two sisters, Susan Hohlfelder Ferreri '86 and Carol Hohlfelder Roth '81, and brother-in-law, Gerald D. Roth '80.

Elizabeth G. Davis '85, April 12, 2004, of New York City, at the age of 40, from a pulmonary embolism following a fractured ankle she broke while jogging in Central Park. She was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She was a corporate philanthropist, recently with Credit Suisse First Boston. She was a volunteer with abused children shelters. Her survivors include a brother, Jeffery W. Davis '84.

J. Brett Flouret '96, May 28, 2003, of Deerfield, Ill., at the age of 29, from a heart attack. He was a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. He taught school in Japan and later became an official translator for the mayor of Yokohama. At the time of his death, he was a graduate student at DePaul University, nearing completion of a master's degree in information technology and e-commerce. His survivors include his parents.

Friends of the University

Audrey B. Beatty, May 1, 2004, of Colorado Springs, Colo., at the age of 102. She taught home economics at several schools before becoming an assistant professor of home economics at DePauw. She became the head of the home economics department and retired, after 23 years, as professor emeritus. After retirement, she taught one year at Purdue University, was director of the Putnam Welfare Department for four years, and was director of Central Indiana's AARP.

Valerie B. Gulick, May 19, 2004, of Arlington, Va. She was a Washington C. DePauw Society fellow. She was a homemaker. Her survivors include her husband, M. Lewis Gulick '44, and a daughter, Spencer Gulick Baker '91.

Merle Garner Sinclair Service, May 13, 2004, of Indianapolis, at the age of 87. She served as the housemother for Phi Gamma Delta fraternity at DePauw from 1978 to 1983. She was preceded in death by her first and her second husbands.

The DePauw Alumni Association congratulates the Class of 2004
and welcomes the graduates
as DePauw alumni!

Be sure to take advantage of an array of e-services available to all alumni, such as:

- E-mail for Life
- E-mail directory
- Discussion board
- Career services
 - Class notes
 - Classified ads

To access these e-services, go to:
www.depauw.edu/e/alumni/index3.asp