

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT AMBASSADOR APPLICATION

What it means to be an International Student Ambassador

The International Student Ambassador will represent DePauw University to new international students. Ambassadors should be able to demonstrate good leadership, speak well in public and effectively communicate with students from around the world. Duties include participating in orientation activities on campus, assisting students with daily activities and use of resources on campus, assisting with events programming during the International Student Orientation and conducting campus tours. Those chosen as International Student Ambassadors represent the academic, cultural and social excellence of DePauw University. Open to all students, international and non-international.

Requirements

- Must be currently enrolled as a student at DePauw and have completed at least one academic year.
- A cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better.
- Previous leadership or volunteer experience preferred.
- Demonstrated excellent interpersonal and communications skills required.
- Must commit to 30 hours of work during orientation week.
- Must commit to one mandatory training session.

Preferred Qualifications Bi-lingual (English and any other language preferred). Indiana driver's license preferred.

- Must be available for the duration of the International Student Orientation that runs from Saturday, August 15-21, 2009

Job Responsibilities

- Communicate and work effectively with other Student Ambassadors, students and staff
- Assist students with daily activities and use of resources on campus
- Assist with events programming during the International Student Orientation
- Conduct campus tours
- Carry out other duties as assigned.

How to Apply

Application materials must include:

- Application
- Resume
- Two Letters of reference
- Interview, scheduled by the Durham House staff upon receipt of the application.

Only complete packets will be reviewed.

Applications are available at

- <http://www.depauw.edu/univ/international/intstudent/documents.asp>

Application Deadline All application materials are due Friday, March 6 by 4:00 p.m. to the Durham House

