ABOUT THE GUIDE

Front Cover: Jamarcus Shephard returns for his senior season after earning consensus all-America honors following the 2003 season and prior to this year as a kick returner.

The 2004 DePauw Football Media Guide was designed and edited by DePauw Director of Sports Information Bill Wagner. Special thanks to the Office of Publications and to Brian Gustin for editorial assistance. Photography throughout by Matt Bowen. The guide was printed by Modern Graphics in Peru, Indiana.

2004 DePauw Football Preview

New Era in Tiger Football Begins

First-year head coach Bill Lynch welcomes 34 lettermen and 10 returning starters as the Tigers prepare to open their first season under the direction of the man with over 25 years of coaching experience including 13 as a head coach.

"I am really looking forward to this season," Lynch said. "This program has been very competitive and battled for the conference championship in an outstanding league."

"Evaluation and finding the right pieces will be very important this year."

OFFENSE

The Tigers return four starters on the offensive side including three wide receivers. DePauw's offense completed the 2003 campaign ranked 40th in Division III with a school record 415.2 yards per game.

Junior quarterback Ross Wiethoff, while not a starter, took nearly half the snaps and put together solid numbers in 2003. Wiethoff had a 134.01 efficiency rating and rushed for 566 yards and an average of 7.6 yards per carry, while equaling the team high with seven touchdowns. His rushing total was the most by a DePauw quarterback in nearly 30 years. Providing competition is senior Karl Odenwald who played briefly in three games last season.

Finding a replacement at running back will be a top priority as Jackson Rust and Matt King graduated last year after combining for over 1,100 yards in 2003 and 3,300 in their careers. Top candidates for the job are senior Matt McMahon, junior John Michels and sophomore Jason Murphy.

Senior fullback Chris Broelsma had just six carries last year, but likely will see more action in 2004 as the Tigers utilize the fullback to a greater extent.

The offensive line returns only Dave Eberle at left guard after he started all 10 games in 2003. Juniors Chad Homan and Jamie Waymouth filled in for injured players during the season. Homan started three games at right guard and Waymouth started five contests at right tackle.

The battle for spots on the line includes seniors Carl Albrecht, Jack Avery, Patrick Croner, Jon Gratz J.P. Kinerk, Braden Nordman and Justin Wissing. Croner was the DePauw freshman of the year in 2001 as an offensive lineman and played defense last year.

Junior quarterback Ross Wiethoff took just under half the snaps in 2003 and rushed for more yards than any DePauw signal caller in nearly 30 years.

A strong receiving corps returns headed by senior Jamarcus Shephard. A consensus all-America kick returner for the Tigers in 2003, Shephard led the squad with 69 catches and 783 yards. Truly a multipurpose threat, Shephard also rushed for 49 yards on 14 carries and finished second in the nation in kickoff return average at 34.7 yards per return including a pair of touchdowns. He also completed two passes including one for a 75-yard score against Hanover. Shephard's 1,491 all-purpose yards last season ranked third in DePauw history.

Junior Brian Culp, a second team all-SCAC performer last year, is also back after a campaign that included 36 catches for 663 yards and 18.4 yards per catch with a team-high six touchdown receptions.

Seniors Kyle McGrath and Torey Rauch also provide veteran leadership. Rauch hauled in 18 catches in 2003 while McGrath grabbed seven. Sophomore David Araiza is another player who could see plenty of time early.

At least three players figure to battle for the tight end position including senior Chris Will, junior Chase Jonason and sophomore Brandon Horn. Jonason caught three passes in the season opener last season before sustaining an injury which kept him out of action most of the season.

"We want to be a very balanced offensive football team," Lynch said. "One of the strengths last year was balance and it's something we want to continue this season."

DEFENSE

The Tigers return a solid defensive line with starters Eric Rausch and Joseph Di Salvo back at tackle spots. Also competing at tackle is junior Rob Camfield.

DePauw will need to replace both starters at defensive end from last season, but the Tigers will get a big lift with the return of junior Dustin Hertel who missed the entire 2003 campaign due to injury. Hertel shared the team lead and tied for second in the conference with seven sacks as a freshman.

The DePauw defense returns five starters and several players with game experience.

Juniors Darron Lasley and Jesse Brutkiewicz as well as sophomore Luis Davila will also contend for the end positions.

The Tigers need to replace all three starters at the linebacker slots. However they do so from a group of players that saw considerable action in 2003.

Senior Matt Koch returns with experience as a starter in three games at the beginning of his junior season. Others battling for spots include seniors Michael Elkins and Devin Barr as well as junior Aaron Key and sophomore Rob Farrow.

With the departure of a pair of four-year starting cornerbacks in David Blackburn and Justin Tillis, the Tigers will have some holes to fill in the secondary.

Returning as starting safeties from a year ago are seniors Cory Partlow and Chris Lambring. Partlow was second on the squad with 61 tackles, while Lambring was sixth with 41. Among those competing are juniors Ben Brown and Curran Clark and sophomore Greg Sylvester.

Senior Obinna Ugokwe will move to cornerback after starting three games at safety last season. Others who will be competing include junior Andrew Huff and sophomores Brendan Berigan, Felix Felder and Eric Lewis.

“Overall I think the defensive line is strong, we have some good, young linebackers and we will need to find a couple of corners.”

KICKING GAME

Sophomore Tyler Mallory returns as the Tigers’ placekicker after seeing limited action a year ago. Mallory did connect on all three extra points on the season.

Handling the punting duties will be either Wiethoff who averaged nearly 37 yards per punt a year ago and earned all-SCAC first team honors or senior Bill Riley who saw limited action as a junior.

SCHEDULE

Once again the Tigers’ schedule is among the most challenging in the country. The month of September alone includes games against teams that combined to post a 28-12 record with Hope and Trinity earning berths into the NCAA Division III Championship. The campaign concludes with the 111th meeting with rival Wabash in the annual Monon Bell game.

“We have a quality schedule,” Lynch said. “We open on the road with a good conference team (Rhodes), face two tough non-conference games and then Trinity.” “That will be a challenge.”

Origin of the Tiger Nickname

On March 4, 1918, the DePauw "D" Athletic Association selected the nickname Tigers from student suggestions in a contest sponsored by the Association.

The final suggestions were Tigers, Yellow Demons, Yellow Jackets, Wasps and Fighting Parsons. The school colors of Old Gold and Black had already been established and they wanted to pick something to work with them, thus Tigers.
