Game 21 — Centre College

#15 DePauw (17-3, 10-1 SCAC) at Centre (14-6, 8-3 SCAC)
Saturday, February 5, 2011 • 1 p.m. • Alumni Gymnasium • Danville, Kentucky

Tiger Tipoff

DePauw returns to Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference action on Saturday, February 5, when it travels to Centre College. Tipoff from Alumni Gymnasium in Danville, Ky., is at 1 p.m.

DePauw won the first meeting by a 77-57 score on January 2 in Greencastle. Katie Aldrich led DePauw with 23 points and nine rebounds, while Chelsea Benham and Paige Baechle each scored 12 for the Colonels. Maggie Prewitt grabbed eight boards in the loss. DePauw shot 50 percent from the floor to Centre's 32.7 percent and the Tigers held a 40-29 edge on the boards.

The Tigers, ranked 15th in both the D3hoops.com and USA Today/ESPN Division III Coaches' Poll, are 17-3 overall and 10-1 in SCAC play following Sunday's 69-30 win over Austin. Aldrich led the Tigers with 18 points, while Katie Mathews and Ellie Pearson each grabbed eight rebounds.

Aldrich leads the team with 13.5 points per game followed by Mathews with 12.0. Pearson is the team leader with 9.3 rebounds each contest and Mathews paces the squad with 4.1 assists. Lauren Goff has hit a team-high 51 three-pointers and is shooting 38.1 percent from beyond the arc. Mathews entered the week ranked second in Division III with a 3.42 assist-to-turnover ratio.

As a team, DePauw entered the week ranked second in Division III in fewest turnovers/game (12.9), fourth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.22), fifth in rebound margin (12.9), eighth in scoring margin (22.5) and 17th in scoring defense (49.9).

In 13 seasons of SCAC play, the Tigers are 178-19 in conference games. DePauw has also won 61 straight conference home games and is 95-4 in home SCAC contests.

Centre is 14-6 overall and 7-3 in the SCAC after Sunday's 82-74 win over Colorado College. The Colonels have won seven of their last eight since losing at DePauw. Prewitt, a member of this week's D3hoops.com Team of the Week, led the Colonels with 27 points, while Benham paced the team with 11 rebounds.

Prewitt leads Centre with 18.4 points and 3.9 assists per contest and has hit a team-high 43 three-pointers while shooting 41.7 percent from beyond the three-point arc. Benham is next with 9.8 points per contest and Lauren Huter leads with 7.4 rebounds.

The Tigers host Oglethorpe on Friday, February 11, at 6 p.m. in the regular season's final home weekend.

KRIS HUFFMAN
Head Coach

Kris Huffman is in her 18th season as DePauw's head women's basketball coach and is the program's winningest coach with a 397-99 career record and a 212-31 mark in conference games.

Her .798 winning percentage (entering the season) is the best in DePauw history, ranks 16th among active coaches on all NCAA levels with at least five years experience and 18th all-time among coaches with at least 10 years experience. The percentage is ninth among Division III active coaches with at least five years experience and ninth all-time in the Division among coaches with five years experience.

Since the beginning of the 1995-96 season, the Tigers have amassed a 360-70 record for an .837 winning percentage which is tops among all NCAA institutions in Indiana and is fourth among the nation's Division III schools.

Huffman led the 2009-10 Tigers to a 26-4 record including a ninth Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference title, a seventh straight appearance in the NCAA postseason and 11th in the last 15 years and the program's ninth straight 20-win season and 13th in the last 14 years.

The 2008-09 Tigers finished with a 22-6 overall record, while Huffman directed the 2007-08 Tigers to a 28-4 record, a third straight Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference title and a third consecutive NCAA Division III quarterfinal appearance. She earned SCAC Coach of the Year honors for the third straight year and sixth time in 10 seasons. DePauw's appearance in the round of 16 was its sixth in the last 11 seasons and the quarterfinal trip the fourth in the last seven years.

She led the 2006-07 Tigers to the University's first national athletic team championship as DePauw defeated Washington-St. Louis by a 55-52 count at Springfield College on March 17, 2007.

The championship capped a school-record 31-win campaign against just three losses and a seventh Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference title in nine years. Huffman was named the national coach of the year by D3hoops.com and WDIII News and also earned her fifth SCAC Coach of the Year award.

Huffman directed the 2005-06 Tigers to a, then, school-record 29 wins against just two losses and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals. Huffman was named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association District Coach of the Year for the fourth time and the Tigers won a school-record 28 straight.

In 2004-05, Huffman led the Tigers to the top seed in the SCAC Championship after finishing with the best regular season record in conference play. The Tigers finished second in the SCAC tournament and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Championship. They finished 23-6 after falling to Calvin in the second round.

In 2003-04, Huffman directed the Tigers to the SCAC title, a berth in the NCAA tournament and a school record-tying 26 wins. Huffman was named the SCAC Coach of the Year for the third time which also marked her fifth conference coach of the year honor overall.

The 2002 Tigers finished third at the NCAA Division III Championship and Huffman was named the Division III Coach of the Year by both the WBCA and WDIII News. DePauw won a school-record 26 games that season and lost just four in capturing its sixth straight conference title. They also won a school-record 20 straight during the campaign. On their way to the national semifinals, the Tigers knocked off fourth-ranked Hardin-Simmons and second-ranked Wilmington on consecutive nights.

Huffman was named the 2002 SCAC Coach of the Year and also earned WBCA District Coach of the Year honors for the second straight year and third time in four seasons.

During the 2000-01 campaign she led the Tigers to a tri-SCAC championship, was the South Region Coach of the Year and a finalist for Division III Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

The 1999-2000 Tigers notched a fourth consecutive 20-win season and shared the SCAC title with Hendrix. They also extended their conference win streak to 43 games and set an SCAC record with 25 consecutive wins in that conference.

In 1998-99, their first season as members of the SCAC, the Tigers finished with a perfect 18-0 conference record and a third appearance in four years in the NCAA Division III Championship. The Tigers, seeded first in the South Region, won a second-round home game over Austin College before being eliminated in the round of 16 by eventual national runner-up St. Benedict. The 22-5 season also included a school-record 17-game win streak.

Huffman earned SCAC Coach of the Year honors which was her third such conference award in her young career. She also was the South Region Coach of the Year and one of eight finalists for the Division III Coach of the Year award.

During the 1997-98 season, Huffman led the Tigers to a then school-record 23 wins against just five losses and the program's second NCAA Division III Championship appearance in three years. The Tigers earned a number two seed in the Great Lakes Region and beat Baldwin-Wallace in a second-round home game before losing to St. Thomas in the round of 16.

The Tigers also captured the regular season and tournament championships in the Indiana Collegiate Athletic Conference and were the first team to win all 10 conference games in a single season. For her efforts she earned her second ICAC Coach of the Year honor in three years.

Huffman led the Tigers to a then school-record 22 wins against just four losses in 1996-97 as the Old Gold shared the Indiana Collegiate Athletic Conference title with Hanover.

During the 1995-96 season, Huffman was named the ICAC Coach of the Year after directing the Tigers to a 19-7 record and the team's first appearance in the NCAA Division III tournament.

In her first season in Greencastle, she led the Tigers to a 12-12 finish and a tie for second place in the ICAC.

A native of Fort Dodge, Iowa, Huffman was named Miss Basketball in Iowa following her senior year in high school when she led her team to a state championship. She then moved on to Division I Northern Iowa where she played basketball and earned a bachelor's degree in community health education.

She still is the Panthers' career three-point record holder with a .483 percentage, is third with an .817 career free throw percentage and recorded the only triple-double in school history with 12 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists against Eastern Illinois on January 31, 1986. Huffman finished as the second all-time leading scorer in school history with 1,294 points and still ranks sixth. Her 322 career assists still rank fifth.

She remained at UNI and received a master's degree in health education. Huffman is also an Iowa Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inductee.

Huffman served as an assistant coach at Wartburg College where she helped them to four straight appearances in the Division III tournament.

In June 2008, Huffman served as a court coach for the 2008 USA Basketball Women's U18 National Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Huffman is also a part-time instructor in the kinesiology department, a lifefit coordinator and the athletic department's compliance director. She served on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Board of Directors and the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Regional Advisory Committee.
