Nicole “Nikki” Craker

Nikki Craker is a Biology major from Cleveland, Ohio. She is a member of the Honor Scholar Program and completed a senior thesis which evaluated projected deficits in primary care and general surgery as a result of the career decisions made by medical students. As the Student Body President, Nikki led the four governing bodies of DePauw Student Government, worked with the Student Life and Academic Atmosphere Committee, collaborated with the Campus Planning Committee, and entered into many complex and invigorating discussions with students, faculty, and staff to creatively envision the future of DePauw. She has also been very passionately committed to DePauw’s First-Year Experience program for three years, both as a Mentor and a Peer Mentor. After graduation, Nikki plans to attend medical school in the hopes of serving her community, advocating for public health, and influencing policy as a leader in the medical community.

Aurora Flores

Aurora Flores was born in Nicaragua, raised in Chicago, Illinois and came to DePauw as a member of Chicago Posse VI. She is an Anthropology and Spanish double major with a minor in Latin American and Caribbean Studies. On campus she has dedicated her time to two major organizations, the Committee for Latino Concerns and Kappa Alpha Theta. Aurora served on the executive boards of both organizations as the President of the Committee for Latino Concerns and the Vice President of Development for Kappa Alpha Theta. During her senior year, she served as a Presidential Ambassador for the Office of the President. Outside of DePauw, Aurora has been actively involved with the NASPA Undergraduate Fellows Program where she has been able to explore the field of higher education and student affairs. After graduation, she plans on completing a year of service with AmeriCorps and pursuing her masters degree in higher education to eventually work with bridge programs designed to increase Latino student access to higher education.

Kevin “Canada” McLoughlin

Kevin McLoughlin is an international student from Toronto, Canada and is double majoring in Philosophy and French. Last year, Kevin and a group of fellow students founded Climb for a Cure, a non-profit corporation that furthers research for the treatment of paediatric brain cancer, the disease that took the life of his seven-year-old sister. This past Winter Term, he led a group of DePauw students to the summit of Mt. Kilimanjaro in a fundraising effort that attracted considerable regional media coverage and grossed over $15,000. Kevin is also a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity and served as the President as well as the Scholarship Chair and Social Chair. In 2009, Kevin received the Order of Omega “Chapter President of the Year Award.” Kevin has also been a member of the DePauw University men’s tennis team for four years. After graduation, Kevin plans to stay in Greencastle to expand Climb for a Cure, which will begin undertaking humanitarian projects in the developing world. It is his hope that Climb for a Cure will offer DePauw students an unparalleled opportunity to mature into our leaders of tomorrow.
