Message from the Director: JC Lopez

DePauw has a rich tradition of Greek Life that dates back more than 175 years. The values of life-long friendship, leadership, service, and scholarship are the cornerstones that are meaningful to alumni and current students, alike. Fraternities and sororities began as a central part of the social experience at DePauw and much of that is still a part of student life today. Both students and alumni have articulated how important the quality of the social experience is as a complement that does not deter from their academic experiences. Thus, the University's commitment to residential, liberal arts education is supported by our fraternity and sorority chapter houses.

I have the privilege of working with a highly motivated, hard working group of professionals in Campus Living and Community Development (CLCD) who are dedicated to creating a student experience that is both challenging and supportive. We are committed to balancing student needs and student learning in every interaction, whether that takes place in our office, at social and educational programs, or a serendipitous conversation on campus. We build leadership skills and encourage community building and self-governance with our fraternity and sorority leaders to help them shape their DePauw experience.

Living on campus is an integral part of the student experience. DePauw provides a residential experience that is progressive by class year with different types of living communities that complement students' in-class learning. Chapter houses are an important component of the residential options on campus. Our deferred recruitment model allows students the opportunity to transition to campus and the academic experience as well as the time for exploration before making the life-long commitment to a Greek-lettered organization. Immersion within these communities enhances each students' intellectual exploration and personal development, linking liberal arts education with life's work. Rather than focusing on where you live, the emphasis is on who you live with and how you learn together. The residential experience allows students to engage in the collegiate environment and integrate their learning in a variety of settings, including daily interactions with faculty, staff, and peers.

Support and resources are provided by the CLCD staff to chapter officers, members, advisors, council members, and in addition to Inter/National headquarters staff, alumni, house corporation boards, and parents of current members and potential new members. Our goal is to serve as a link between the University and the various constituent groups related to the twenty-five fraternities and sororities currently at DePauw.

It has been an active year on campus and this report is intended to supply basic information about fraternity and sorority life (FSL) as well as highlight the activities and achievements of our community. The report also contains information about membership, general trends, and the work of CLCD over the past academic year. While the successes of the past year have been exciting, there is still much to be done. If you have feedback or questions about information included in this report, please contact us. I look forward to the coming year to strengthen and advance the fraternal experience at DePauw. Many thanks for your support and commitment to these endeavors.

Interfraternally,

A Year in Review

During the 2017 – 2018 academic year, the Campus Living and Community Development staff worked with diligence and passion to enhance the fraternity and sorority community. Continuing conversations about the value of the experience to our students, families, alumni and campus community.

The staff transitions within Campus Living and Community Development during the Fall 2017 semester, provided an opportunity to re-envision the support and advising for our chapters, both for the short term and to establish a long term vision. For the 2017 – 2018 academic year, we welcomed Antonio Austin (Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.) and Destiny Hand (Phi Mu Fraternity). Nick Stepaniak (Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity) supported the community during his third year at DePauw, working with chapters and councils. JC Lopez (Kappa Delta Rho Fraternity) continued to serve as the Director of Campus Living and Community Development, working with chapters and leaders on community initiatives.

The departure of Nick Stepaniak and Antonio Austin has allowed the CLCD team to search for new talent to join our DePauw team. This year, we are also in search for several positions during the summer. We hosted several candidate interviews and are excited to expand on our team. Our staff will continue to inform our partners of the advising changes for the 2018 – 2019 academic year. This year, will also present the opportunity to search and hire for a Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life in order to further enhance our community and initiatives on campus.

Community Development

President McCoy has charged our community to undergo a review through the Greek Leadership Commission. Through this effort, a group of alumni, students, faculty and staff have gathered to participate in many of the conversations about the Greek-lettered experience at DePauw. The areas that have been discussed are: diversity and inclusion, risk reduction, advising and leadership, and housing and national trends within our community. These efforts have created multiple opportunities for engagement with our student leaders and dedicated alumni volunteers. With this in mind, we have implemented many new initiatives for our fraternity and sorority community.

Campus Living and Community Development continues to discuss the benefits and changes to IFC and Panhellenic Council Recruitment Dates with our chapters for all chapter and council leaders. These efforts have supported the academic mission of the institution, have help alleviate academic pressures and interruptions during the first week of the spring semester. This was a positive adjustment and supported our first-year students schedules in order to assist them in their transitions to their second semester and into their new membership.

We established the Greek Leadership Retreat two days prior to the start of classes (August 20th – 21st, 2017). During these two days, chapter and council leaders discussed issues and set goals for they year. Focusing the first day of the retreat on to allow chapter representatives and council leaders to foster relationships across councils.

Following the first Greek Leadership Retreat day, we hosted the fourth year Fraternity and Sorority Life was included in the First-Year Orientation schedule. This year GLO GREEK was the new program that kick-off and welcomed new students to the Fraternity and Sorority community. There are a variety of activities, food, and prizes, and glow in the dark events throughout the night. With roughly fifty volunteers, chapters had representatives and council leaders promoted the experience. We welcomed our newest DePauw students with typical fair and excitement.

The second day was focused on campus resources and staff, which provided an opportunity for chapter officers to learn about the changes and updates to campus. Topics included:

- Leadership Impact and Risk Reduction with Title IX
- Collaboration, Processes, and Policies with Community Standards
- Event Registration and Successful Event Planning with Alcohol Initiatives Office
- Collaborating with Public Safety on Risk Reduction
- Bias Incident Response Team, Women's Center , and Programming with the Center for Diversity and Inclusion
- Recruitment, Fall Events, and Calendar of Events within each council

Community Development

This year, we also changed Greek Week! It provided an opportunity for us to re-align our programming efforts and community development with chapters. This year, we had teams which had chapters represented from all councils. This allowed for cross-council relationships to foster and flourish during the academic year. Greek Week was held the third week in September, which allowed first-year students to see the community gather. Additionally, a shift away from “Greek God and Goddess” which limited the connection among chapters, was re-formatted through teams. The chapters where provided an opportunity to dance and perform collectively. The overall winning Greek Week Team was: Delta Gamma, Delta Upsilon, Phi Gamma Delta, and Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.. The following teams paired together and participated during Greek Week 2017:

- Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Beta Phi, Sigma Lambda Gamma Sorority, Inc.
- Alpha Chi Omega, Omega Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Sigma Nu, and Sigma Chi
- Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Phi Delta Theta
- Beta Theta Pi, Lambda Sigma Upsilon Fraternity, Inc., Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Psi Lambda Xi
- Alpha Phi, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., Phi Kappa Psi, and Mu Sigma Upsilon
- Delta Gamma, Delta Upsilon, Phi Gamma Delta, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Additionally, we hosted a Keynote Speaker during Greek Week. This year, we had Dr. Lori Hart join our community to challenge our members in being active leaders, addressing the alcohol culture, empowering our fraternity and sorority leaders to push our community forward. Dr. Lori Hart serves as the Director of Educational Initiatives for Holmes Murphy Fraternity Practice. We were fortunate to welcome such an active and well-known Greek-lettered pioneer.

We also welcomed Michelle Guobadia, who is an outspoken advocate for Greek Life. She currently works at University of North Carolina at Charlotte and is a member of the AFA Executive Board. Michelle address our community in November to be and do better. She spoke to the issues of hazing and spent time talking with new member educators and council leaders. New member education and hazing is an important issue that has impacted the Greek-lettered community nationally over the last two years. Our community will continue to discuss the risk, impact and concerns that this can have on individual members, chapters and leaders, and our fraternity and sorority community.

To start Spring 2018, we hosted a President’s Welcome Luncheon in order to provide updates and information to chapter and council leaders. This allowed us to introduce our new “Minimum Standards” program to chapters. The purpose of this is a semesterly endeavor to collect a 2018 calendar year reporting method. With the aim of an overall Fraternity and Sorority Community report for January 2019. Those chapters that complete the Minimum Standards will have letters sent to their Inter/National Organization of their accomplishments. Those chapters that go beyond Minimum Standards may be awarded Chapter of Excellence for the 2018 Calendar Year.

Community Development

During the Spring Semester, we were also able to have four student leaders attend AFLV; Brittany Davis (President – Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.), Kayla Sullivan (Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.), Kathy Umana (Panhellenic Association), and Bre Kloczkowski (President – Panhellenic Association). The Central Fraternal Leadership Conference and the National Black Greek Leadership Conference comprise the AFLV Central Conference, which is held yearly in Indianapolis.

“AFLV Central features joint workshops and presentations as well as a curriculum that will address specific issues facing the many councils within our fraternal communities. This is an exciting opportunity allowing for inclusive programming and collaboration between campus administrators, national organizations, and students to address issues like risk management, intake, intra-council relationships, and liability issues. Also included is specific information about current events and issues impacting the fraternity/sorority community on campus.”

In the spring, CLCD welcomed the North American Interfraternity Conference (NIC) program, LAUNCH. LAUNCH was a one-day retreat that allowed chapter leaders to be engaged and participate to foster relationships, explore individual and shared issues, and set-goals to address them. The program's goal is to bring together leaders and set them up for success. There were positive and negative aspects to the program, but there was honesty and intent behind the discussions. We hope that programs and partnerships like LAUNCH will continue to engage our leaders in the future.

We hope to continue our partnerships with all governing councils and Inter/national Headquarters during the upcoming year. There have been many supportive conversations regarding chapters and improvement this year, with the hopes of continuing to enhance our chapters, members, councils and community. We look forward to continuing to collaborate with our fraternity and sorority partners within the community to further develop the DePauw experience.

Diversity & Inclusion

This academic year, CLCD worked to implement several initiatives that supported Diversity & Inclusion with fraternity and sorority life. In collaboration with the Center for Diversity & Inclusion (CDI) and Bias Education Action Team (BEAT), we implemented two programs focused on these efforts. We developed new programs, resources and student leadership positions.

Campus Living and Community Development discussed how to communicate and make IFC and Panhellenic Council Formal Recruitment more welcoming to all students. We began by adjusting our documents and communication to allow students to choose the type of membership based on their identity. Additionally, we created a resource page on the CLCD website for those making decisions about joining a chapter/organization or families. This provides information and links to each Inter/National organization at DePauw, their membership statements, requirements, and policies. The page can be found here: https://www.depauw.edu/studentacademiclife/greek/resources/diversity-and-inclusion/

A program called New Member Symposium was introduced for all new members that completed IFC and Panhellenic Formal Recruitment in February. During this half-day program of Panhellenic and Interfraternity Council the New Members participated in 45 minute sessions pertaining to:

- Starting to Explore Yourself: Race and Gender
- Expanding Our Practice of Brotherhood & Sisterhood: Including members with international perspectives
- Learning more about NPHC & MGC
- Bystander Intervention

At the conclusion of the program, staff members facilitated a conversation with each New Member Class regarding the topics which they engaged in throughout the day. This allowed for ongoing dialogue and learning from a peer-to-peer perspective. We have included an overview of our participation based on councils and chapters in this Annual Report.

Additionally, with our CDI and BEAT partners, we hosted two educational program each semester for chapters and members, with a 25% chapter participation. The first program was “Cross-Cultural Communication” which was presented by Matt Abtahi, Assistant Director of Multicultural Student Services. During this session, students learned to define micro and macro aggression, reflect on the role that stereotypes and how stereotypes threaten their own lives, as well as practice how to repair harmful communication.

The second program was presented by Matthew Cummings, Assistant Director of Hartman House and Neal McKinney; “Unpacking Power and Privilege.” During this program, students learned about one’s identity and how their world view is constructed through cycles of socialization, understood how identities are constructed into hierarches based on socialization, and formulated a basic understand of what it means to be an ally.

Diversity & Inclusion

Additionally, several chapters implemented internal programming for members during the spring 2018 semester. Inviting various faculty, staff and students to participate in facilitating meaningful dialogue.

For the 2018 – 2019 academic year, CLCD has included Lawrence Ross, the author of the Los Angeles Times best seller, The Divine Nine: The History of African American Fraternities and Sororities, has written a new blockbuster book: Blackballed: The Black and White Politics of Race on Americas Campuses. Lawrence Ross will serve as our keynote speaker for Greek Week 2018, delivering his KNOW BETTER/DO BETTER campus racism lecture, which will happen prior to DePauw Dialogue. This will allow fraternity and sorority members to engage in these challenging conversations before we join our DePauw community in discussions on diversity and inclusion topics. More information about Lawrence Ross can be found here: http://thelawrenceross.com/.

Lastly, we have included our community demographics for spring 2018 by self-identified gender and ethnicity. Through this overview, we can note that roughly 20% of our fraternity and sorority community identify as a domestic student of color or as an international student. As our student population continues to expand, so should our community.

New Member Symposium

Following the IFC and Panhellenic Forma Recruitment in Spring 2018, Campus Living and Community Development staff collaborated with Student Academic Life staff. Through this new program, we collaborated to not only discuss issues of Diversity and Inclusion, but address issues and national topics the fraternity and sorority community. The New Member Symposium, also included sessions regarding:

- Intro & What is DePauw Greek Life?
- Alcohol Information with the Alcohol Initiatives Office
- Hazing, Don't Put Up With It!

Due to schedule conflicts, CLCD and council advisors allowed for excuses to be provided prior to the event. Several programs were considered as excuses: athletic competitions, academic commitments, or organizational sanctioned programs. The graph on page following page provides the overview of council and chapter participation in throughout this educational programming. This new and introductory program, we believe allowed both staff and students to have conversations regarding prevalent issues within the fraternity and sorority community, and allow them to develop their leadership with their chapter and council in the future. We will introduce another program for Fall 2018 New Member Classes and those who joined our community at the end of the Spring 2018 semester, focused on a council specific needs.

Chapter Accomplishments & Celebrations

This year, we celebrate the ongoing legacies of our campus organizations. Pi Beta Phi – Indiana Epsilon has embarked on 75 years at DePauw University. The chapter not only celebrated their founding at DePauw, but was also recognized in 2017 as the #2 of the Top 10 chapters for Foundation giving. Through their efforts the Indiana Epsilon chapter supported Philanthropic Service to Others to “support Fraternity leadership development programs, literacy initiatives across the United States, and more.” For more information visit the Pi Beta Phi Foundation website.

Pi Beta Phi Chapters Donate Nearly $1.5 Million to Pi Beta Phi Foundation

Pi Beta Phi chapters collectively contributed $1,496,086 to Pi Beta Phi Foundation in 2017 — marking another milestone year for chapter giving. Pi Phi collegians continue to live the value of Philanthropic Service to Others and are making it possible for the Foundation to support premier Fraternity leadership development programs, literacy initiatives across North America and more.

Each year the Foundation recognizes the Top 10 chapters for Foundation giving. The Top 10 is determined by total gifts to the Foundation divided by the number of members in the chapter. This gives us the opportunity to recognize the efforts of both our large and small chapters.

Congratulations and thank you to the 2017 Top 10 chapters!

2. Indiana Epsilon (DePauw University)
3. Mississippi Beta (University of Mississippi)
4. Mississippi Alpha (University of Southern Mississippi)
5. Texas Eta (Texas A&M University)
6. Montana Alpha (Montana State University)
7. Iowa Beta (Simpson College)
8. California Kappa (University of California - San Diego)
9. Illinois Kappa (University of Chicago)
10. Ohio Beta (The Ohio State University)

Phi Delta Theta – Indiana Zeta marked 150 years during the 2017 – 2018 academic year. This event was marked with several celebrations, including a large gathering from alumni during Alumni Reunion Weekend during the summer of 2018. The “Silver and Golden Legion ceremonies where held and a special award was presented to honor long-time House Corporation Board President Darrel Johnson ‘85.” More information about Phi Delta Theta – Indiana Zeta’s celebration can be found online at Phi Delta Theta’s webpage. The chapter also received several awards this summer during their International Fraternity Convention for Recruitment and Scholarship.

Interfraternity Council Overview

The Interfraternity Council (IFC) is made up of nine fraternities on DePauw University's campus. Eight of these organizations are also members of the North American Interfraternity Conference (NIC), a nationally-based organization comprised of inter/national social men's fraternities. The IFC executive board, which includes elected representatives from the member fraternities, administers its fraternities and operates to connect them with the larger DePauw community.

The 2017 –2018 executive board was led by President, Nathaniel Reed (Sigma Chi, '18), who previously served as Vice President of Risk Management on the 2016 – 2017 IFC executive team. Likewise, Mitchell Davis (Vice President of Operations, Phi Delta Theta, '18), Benjamin Kusber (Vice President of Recruitment, Sigma Chi, '18), Andrew Bertucci (Vice President of New Member Education, Delta Upsilon, '18), Abhishek Sambatur (Vice President of Diversity and Inclusion, Delta Upsilon, '19), Richard Costas (Vice President of Risk Management, Sigma Chi, '19), Ian Epkey (Vice President of Finance, Delta Upsilon, '19), Andrew Fournier (Vice President of Communications, Phi Delta Theta, '18), and Grant Rademacher (Vice President of Scholarship, Delta Tau Delta, '19) serve as representatives in the 2017 IFC executive board.

The 2018 – 2019 executive board has been led by President, Cole Taylor, Delta Tau Delta, '19), who previously served as Delta Tau Delta Chapter President. Additionally, past Delta Upsilon Chapter President, Joshua Griesi, (Vice President of Internal Affairs, Delta Upsilon, '19), Mitchell Spencer (Vice President of Recruitment, Phi Delta Theta, '19), Nate Spangle (Vice President of Risk Management, '19), Yukata Phyo (Vice President of Membership Education, '20), Andrew Bichey (Vice President of Administration, '19), Blaine Brutus (Vice President of Community Relationships, '19), serve as IFC executive board. Over the course of the academic year, the executive board positions were realigned and streamlined in order to allow for collaboration within the council and among the community.

The 2017 – 2018 and 2018 – 2019 executive board completed the year with a successful recruitment, despite lower enrollment numbers at DePauw University. During the 2017 – 2018 academic year, there were 312 first-year male-identified students, of which 243 were eligible and met the grade requirement to participate in Formal Recruitment. IFC held a stronger recruitment compared to the previous year Formal Recruitment; with 215 men joining our community (160 Formal Recruitment and 55 Open Bids). We have seen a slight increase in upper-class students joining a fraternity throughout the year, with 16 registered and 12 matched to a chapter. Both executive teams are thrilled that students men found a chapter on our campus.

Conversations around campus have continued to surround the topics of Risk Management, Sexual Assault, Diversity and Inclusion, and Community Development. Our IFC executive board has taken significant steps to address each of these issues within our organizations and across other Greek and non-Greek groups on campus. Positive strides have been made with IFC Cultural Chairs, which have begun to intersect with similar roles within Panhellenic. Many of our chapters have participated in challenging conversations and addressing issues in the community. IFC hopes to continue our efforts into the 2018 – 2019 academic year so we can connect ourselves with the other Greek communities to establish a deeper connection. IFC has done a good job in participating in the new Greek Week structure that has six teams which includes chapters from all Greek communities on campus.

As IFC continually shifts towards becoming a self-sanctioning organization, we have been in contact with staff, the administration and chapter presidents to reform and reshape our community. The IFC Hearing Boards have been one method in which IFC has been able to address issues with chapters in a self-governing fashion. IFC Executive Board continues to be involved in the event registration process and in addressing concerns. The 2018 – 2019 Executive Board continues to make strides to make the DePauw Interfraternity Council experience meaningful and positive. We look forward further enhancing our council, chapters and membership.

Recruitment & Membership Overview

The InterFraternity Council recruitment occurs prior to the start of the Spring Semester and at the conclusion of Winter Term. Potential New Members are provided an opportunity to visit all chapters during first round. Chapters host two additional rounds (2nd and 3rd) through a mutual selection process. At the conclusion of the third round, Potential New Members may be extended bids to those chapters who invite them to join their membership.

Panhellenic Association Overview

The 2017-2018 academic year was a successful year for DePauw's Panhellenic Association. In August, the women held a retreat to spend some time reflecting on the goals and expectations set at the beginning of their term and to articulate their overall vision for the community. The vision incorporates values of the community, which are then used to make the programming calendar for the year. By connecting the values of the community with the calendar the Executive Council actively works to provide values-based programming throughout the academic year. To focus on academics, the Panhellenic women hosted a Women's Empowerment Scholarship Banquet inviting affiliated and unaffiliated women of DePauw that achieved above a 3.6 GPA average to celebrate their accomplishments and dine on gourmet desserts while listening to a speaker. The Spring 2018 Vice President of Scholarship, Miriam Senousy, also began work on helping to establish a scholarship to contribute to new member dues for the 2019 New Member Class that will be chosen and allocated based on academic achievement and a needs basis to lessen the financial burden of the first year within a Panhellenic Organization.

Service and Philanthropy was an additional focus of the community and over the year, the executive council worked to increase opportunities for Panhellenic women to better serve the community as well as gain valuable skills in fundraising for nonprofit organizations. Panhellenic once again partnered with Special Olympics to host the largest women's basketball event in the state of Indiana and one of the only Special Olympics Women's Basketball Tournaments in the nation. During the Fall Semester, the Panhellenic Executive Council serves monthly meals at the local women and children's shelter, Beyond Homeless. The Panhellenic initiation celebration, New Member Day of Service, continued to better fit the values of the Panhellenic community. The executive council, with the guidance of the VP of Programming, planned and executed a Greencastle community service event. Groups of newly initiated women rotated throughout stations in the Union Building to help complete projects to benefit the various community and university organizations. The new members made 100 kits for the homeless, packed more than 100 bookmarks and school supplies in goody bags for local children, made over 350 dog toys for the humane society, wrote 130 letters for those serving in the military, decorated over 200 bags for Meals on Wheels, and painted over 30 signs for the Campus Farm all in one afternoon.

In a continued effort to support Diversity and Inclusion, Panhellenic voted to have Diversity and Inclusion Chairs from each chapter serve on a committee to address shortcomings of the Panhellenic Community. Fall, the Panhellenic community invited DePauw Alumni and Day of Dialogue Speaker to have a debrief for members of Panhellenic continuing conversations started at DePauw Dialogue. During the Spring Semester, Panhellenic held weekly meetings with the Diversity and Inclusion Chairs, and hosted a conversation on privilege, implicit bias, and bias incidents with BEAT Team member and CDI Staff member, Matt Abtahi. The committee also drafted set topics that will be addressed in the upcoming school year.

Overall, the DePauw Panhellenic Executive Board has paved the path for a successful 2018-2019 school year. The Rho Gamma Recruitment Counselors will begin a new training program in hopes of increasing retention throughout the 2019 Primary Recruitment Session. Dates have been set to continue cooking for Beyond Homeless, and planning for Fall events are well underway. The DePauw Panhellenic Association and governing organizations

Multicultural Greek Council Overview

Sigma Lambda Gamma National Sorority Inc.

Omega Phi Beta Sorority Inc.

Multicultural Greek Council—Spring 2018 Program

Three organizations comprise the Multicultural Greek Council (MGC) at DePauw University. With two Latina/Multicultural women's and a Latino/Multicultural men's organization, the council aims to unite and serve the needs and wants of culturally diverse Greek-Lettered organizations.

Greisy Genao of Omega Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. was a two term council president, the 2016—2017 and 2017—2018 academic years. Vice President Uriah Brown of Lambda Sigma Upsilon Latino Fraternity, Inc.

MGC has continued to develop and collaborate in order to address some internal processes, chapter relationships and address constitutional and by-law changes. Through this leadership, communication and fellowship, MGC continued to create a forum which promoted growth, cooperation, and enlightenment for the purpose of serving and educating our community.

This year, the Multicultural Greek Council hosted four events: Step, Stroll, Salute, MGC/NPHC Olympics, MGC Barbecue, and the MGC Karaoke and Cookout. The Gamma Epsilon chapter of Sigma Lambda Gamma National Sorority, Inc. welcomed four new members. President Greisy Genao was inducted into Order of Omega. All three chapters received awards at the Order of Omega banquet. Six seniors graduated! We ended off the academic year by hosting a cookout with The Brotherhood, and we were also joined by the men of Lambda Upsilon Lambda Fraternity, Incorporated.

Chris Neal, of Lambda Sigma Upsilon Latino Fraternity, Inc. will take on the responsibility of serving as President of the Multicultural Greek Council during the 2018 - 2019 academic year. He will be supported by Vice President Austin Canales of Lambda Sigma Upsilon Latino Fraternity, Inc.

All of the MGC organizations rely on its unity to collaborate with one another as well as outside organizations to provide DePauw with meaningful programs and events. During the Spring 2018 semester, Sigma Lambda Gamma Sorority, Inc. — welcomed four new members to the Gamma Epsilon Chapter.

Membership Overview

The Multicultural Greek Council organization's each have individual membership intake processes. In the Fall, the council hosts a program introducing students to the organizational purpose, philanthropy and service, as well as initiatives. During Step, Stroll and Salute (Triple S); students are able to receive information about a variety of organizations within MGC. Each MGC chapter may host individual Informational Meetings throughout the year. This is one way that students can learn more about each organization. It is also encouraged and important for students to attend campus programs and events. DePauw University recognizes three MGC organization, although members collaborate with various institutions, chapters and members.

National Pan-Hellenic Council Overview

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc. – Lambda Tau Celebrates 8 Years

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. – Rho Tau Chapter.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. – Commencement

The National Pan-Hellenic Council at DePauw University is during the 2017 – 2019 academic year was comprised of two fraternities and three sororities. The council's five chapters are part of a nationally-based umbrella organization of historically Black Greek-lettered organizations. Over the 2017 - 2018 academic year, NPHC was led by President Christian Rivera, of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. and Vice President Latoya Logan of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. Together they worked to create unity amongst the council.

NPHC hosted and co-sponsored several events for the entire DePauw community, including the annual "Meet the Greeks" presentation and panel. NPHC partnered with the Panhellenic Council to host a youth Trick-or-Treat festival. Individual organizations also collaborated with IFC and Panhellenic chapters, to continue to unify the DePauw Greek Life experience.

NPHC members actively and did an exceptional job in participating in the new 2017 Greek Week. Chapters and members collaborated with various organizations outside of the council, with the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. team securing 1st place during Greek Week.

NPHC welcomed back for the fifth year to DePauw University, Rasheed Ali Cromwell, Esq., one of the leading authorities on fraternity and sorority life on college campuses. The discussion with students and members addressed the value of Black Greek-Lettered Organizations and explored current trends and national topics. Successfully, the event had representation from all four councils (NPHC, MGC, Panhellenic, and IFC).

During the 2018 - 2019 academic year NPHC will continue to strive towards continued visibility and unity with leadership from Interim Council President, Antoinette Gibson of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. This year, NPHC will have a one semester term, with the goal of moving executive board terms to a calendar year. The change will assist in ensuring transitions are seamless and programs are able to be implemented during efficiently during the fall semester.

Membership Overview

Every year in the Fall Semester, NPHC hosts “Meet The Greeks”, an opportunity for students to get more information about individual organizations, council and membership. Each NPHC organization has an individualized membership informational and intake process. You can learn more about NPHC during the Student Activities and Community Service Fair during New Student Orientation at the start of each academic year. Students are also encouraged to attend the various programs that chapters host throughout the year in order to learn more about the organization and members. DePauw recognized NPHC chapters may host individual Informational Meetings throughout the year.

Fraternity & Sorority Awards

Order of Omega is a well-known national honor society for junior and senior members of the Fraternity and Sorority community. The organization was founded in an effort to bring together extraordinary men and women who have made a difference within their respective Greek chapters, the University, and the community. The Gamma Upsilon Chapter was established at DePauw University in 1981.

One of the purposes of Order of Omega is “to recognize those fraternity men and women who have attained a high standard of leadership in inter-fraternity activities, to encourage them to continue along this line, and to inspire others to strive for similar conspicuous attainment.” The Gamma Upsilon chapter achieves this purpose through Fraternity and Sorority Awards, held in the spring.

Next, year Order of Omega will use the Fraternity & Sorority 2018 Accreditation Process to support the nomination and selection of chapter and individual member awards at the start of the spring term.
