

Look at What's Happened Since Our 50th...come see

Ubben Quadrangle

The residence halls take on a new look.

James G. Stewart Plaza

Located between Hoover Hall and the Student Union Building...a place to connect.

Athletic Complex

An incredible array of athletic fields, stadiums and fieldhouses.

Bartlett Reflection Center

Located in DePauw's Nature Park, the two buildings are joined by a series of waterfalls and streams.

Lilly Center

DePauw's amazing fitness and recreation center...remember Bowman?

New University Residences

DePauw now offers a wide variety of student housing

Emerson Building and Museum

This facility houses Admission and Financial Aid plus curated exhibits from DePauw's permanent art collection.

Hoover Hall

Hoover Hall serves as the primary dining space for more than 1,000 students, creating a focal point of connection that brings students, faculty, and staff together.

The Center for Diversity and Inclusion

Offers cultural programming and services for students of color and international students as well as advocates for social justice.