

Gift via Wire Transfer Notification Form

You must contact your financial institution with instructions to transfer a gift via wire to DePauw. The purpose of this form is to notify DePauw of an anticipated wire transfer and to indicate the designation of your gift. Privacy statutes may prevent your financial institution from providing us with any personal information. This form allows us to know who transferred a gift via wire and ensure timely and accurate processing of your gift.

Instructions: Please complete this form (you may fill in the form electronically or by hand) and e-mail or mail to the address listed at the bottom of this form. Alternatively, you may provide this form to your financial institution and ask them to complete and e-mail to the address below. If providing to your financial institution to complete you must also grant permission for them to send the form to DePauw. If you have additional questions regarding this form or about making a gift via wire please contact a member of our Development staff at 1-800-446-5298.
