

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS & PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

STUDENT CONSENT TO RELEASE ACADEMIC AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student’s education records. Education records include student academic and financial records which are considered confidential and will not be released without written consent from the student. In accordance with FERPA, it is necessary for the University to obtain written consent from the student in order to release any financial or student account information to a third party. Additional information regarding FERPA policy is available at <http://www.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpco/ferpa/index.html>.
