THE GALLERIES AND COLLECTIONS

AT DEPAUW UNIVERSITY

MISSION STATEMENT

The educational mission of the galleries and collections at DePauw University is to inspire and engage diverse audiences through our collections, exhibitions, and public programming, and to stimulate the spirit of inquiry through a variety of learning styles. As part of an institution of higher learning, we are dedicated to providing educational programming that will enhance the cultural life of the immediate community by contributing to the educational enrichment of students, faculty members, and the general public.

RICHARD E. PEELER ART CENTER

The Richard E. Peeler Art Center is dedicated to open and ongoing engagement with the ever-changing nature of art from today, the recent past, and the near future. Designed by internationally acclaimed architect Carlos Jiménez, Peeler Art Center is home to the department of art and art history, as well as three spacious galleries dedicated to the art of our time.

With more than 10 rotating exhibitions each academic year, Peeler Art Center galleries continuously offer a new experience for visitors. From international traveling exhibitions of Chinese paintings to DePauw's annual Juried Student Art Exhibition, Peeler Art Center provides a range of opportunities for guests to appreciate and enjoy contemporary art.

EMISON GALLERIES

The Emison Building serves as home for the DePauw Office of Admission and also displays curated exhibitions from the permanent art collection. The Shidzuo Iikubo '23 Gallery of Asian Art is dedicated to highlighting Japanese and Tibetan artworks from the University's collection. The adjacent ethnographic gallery houses anthropological objects, including African sculpture, masks and textiles.

DEPAUW ART COLLECTION

Peeler Art Center is also home to the University's art collection of more than 4,000 objects. Areas of strength include 20th-century works on paper, regional art, and large holdings in Asian art and anthropological artifacts. Contact the registrar at 765-658-4902 for more information about accessing the collection.
